

Adlai Stevenson Dead

Collapses On London Street
At US Embassy

LONDON (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson collapsed in the street outside the U.S. Embassy today and died in St. George's Hospital. He was 65.

The U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations was on a short visit to London and had just left the Embassy on Grosvenor Square when he was stricken. He had kept a busy schedule here, visiting friends and political contacts.

Cause of death was not immediately announced.

Earlier today Stevenson had conferred with Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart at the Foreign Office. On Sunday he lunched with Prime Minister Harold Wilson at Chequers, the country home of British prime ministers.

He had arrived here from Paris on Sunday and had been expected to return to the United States this weekend. During his trip to Europe Stevenson also attended the meeting of the U.S. Economic and Social Council.

The man who was the Democratic Presidential candidate in 1952 and 1956 did not appear to have been in poor health.

Monday night he was interviewed on British Broadcasting Corp. television about U.S. policy in Viet Nam. To viewers, he seemed his usual self-possessed articulate self.

He collapsed on a mild, sunny day, with the temperature in the 70s.

He collapsed on the sidewalk in front of the International Sportsman's Club, halfway between the embassy on Grosvenor Square and Park Lane.

"Apparently passersby called an ambulance but we do not yet know who it was," said a spokesman for the U.S. Embassy.

The man who ran unsuccessfully for the Presidency in 1952 and 1956 was taken to a hospital.

The Embassy said it did not immediately have details of the death of the man who was the unsuccessful Democratic Presidential candidate in 1952 and 1956.

Stevenson had been visiting London for talks with British officials. He had seen Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart this morning.

He died in St. George's Hospital at about 5 p.m. (11 a.m., EST).

The embassy spokesman said Stevenson apparently died in the street and was certified dead on arrival at St. George's Hospital, about half a mile away at Hyde Park Corner.

Johnson Near Tears At News
Of Death

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson appeared close to tears today at the news of Adlai E. Stevenson's death.

And shock as well as sorrow was evident in Congress.

Johnson was notified of Stevenson's death by Secretary of State Dean Rusk who had received word by telephone from the U.S. Embassy in London.

Both the President and Rusk were at a White House luncheon honoring members of the Joint United States-Japan committee on trade and economic affairs.

Rusk also relayed the word to congressional leaders.

The death was announced to the House by Rep. Carl Albert, D-Okla.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., announced the death to the Senate, calling it "a great loss to the world and to the nation." Stevenson was a former governor of Illinois and longtime close friend of Douglas.

With the announcement, the Senate put aside debate on a housing bill and senator after senator arose for tributes to Stevenson.

Responds to Commands from Earth

Mariner 4 Tunes In

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Spacecraft Mariner 4 has responded to its first earth command in five months, indicating it is ready to begin later today making an historic series of close-up photos of Mars.

At 7:28 a.m. PDT scientists at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory sent a signal across 134 million miles of space ordering warm-up of Mariner's instruments. Twenty-four minutes later an answer flashed back, signaling that Mariner was obeying.

At 5:20 p.m., if all goes well, the 575-pound craft will start making up to 21 photographs as it flies within 6,000 miles of the Martian surface. Thursday it is supposed to send the photos back to earth — perhaps shedding light on the ancient question of whether the mystery planet has life.

The warmup signal was sent with Mariner only 107,000 miles from Mars and traveling 9,970 miles per hour with relation to the planet. Its speed will increase to 11,000 m.p.h. by the time it flies by.

The earth command, first since last Feb. 12, was transmitted from a tracking station at Johannesburg, South Africa. It started a light-sensitive scanner looking for the bright disk of Mars.

And it started Mariner's camera making warmup clicks, although it will not actually take pictures until the scheduled time.

Since February, the spacecraft's activities have been controlled by an on-board timer.

The activity today climaxed a 228-day, 325-million-mile flight.

If everything works scientists expect to release Thursday night or Friday history's first closeup of the one other planet in the solar system believed likely to harbor some form of life.

Reddish-tinged Mars, one-fourth the diameter of earth, is the only planet with surface markings visible in telescopes. It has white caps at the poles which could be ice, and vast desert-like areas around its equator. Between the polar caps and the desert are splotches of dark green that some scientists have speculated are vegetation. The whole central belt is crisscrossed by canal-like lines with city-like smudges at the intersections.

Whether or not Mariner 4 finds evidence of life, its success would bring the United States tremendous prestige for the greatest technical achievement yet in deep space: transmission of photographs across 134 million miles.

The Soviet Union's attempt to duplicate the feat failed last April when the Mars-bound Zond 2 — launched two days after Mariner 4 shot aloft Nov. 28 — stopped sending back signals.

School Year
Calendar OK

A calendar for the 1965-66 school year was approved Tuesday night by the Sedalia Board of Education. School opens on September 3, closes June 1 and includes 177 school days.

Guardsmen To Camp On Friday

17 Day Camp
By Hundreds From Central Missouri

Hundreds of Central Missouri National Guardsmen leave early Friday morning for annual field training at Camp Ripley, Minn.

Seven men left from Sedalia Wednesday morning on an advance detail assignment in preparation for the main body of troops which will arrive at Camp Ripley Sunday. The advance troops do a limited amount of wire emplacement.

Their main duties revolve around the signing for contentment and field areas from the Camp Ripley permanent party, then turning the areas over to the artillery battalions on their arrival.

Both Sedalia units will be participating in the 17 day exercise at the Minnesota National Guard Camp, about 100 miles northwest of Minneapolis. The men travel via army vehicles in convoy style over assigned highways. The two Sedalia units use different routes to and from camp. The Sedalia firing battery (Battery C) will join up with other units of the 1st Howitzer Battalion, 128th Artillery in the northeast part of the state and continue on northward. The local Artillery Group Headquarters joins with Battery F, Aviation Corps Artillery, 128th Artillery, near Waverly, Mo. for a combined convoy trip.

Whenever possible, National Guard or Army Reserve armories are used for overnight stops. However, plans also call for stops in parks and fairgrounds while enroute to and from Minnesota.

The Sedalia units will start leaving at five o'clock local time Friday morning. The orders say six o'clock but it also notes that daylight time will be used, rather than the local standard time. Sunday morning the units arrive at Camp Ripley, and after a layover of a few hours move on to the field where they will set up field positions, including large operations tents, medical facilities, communications, etc.

In-field training the first week will run only through Wednesday morning this year, cutting short their usual stint by one day. However this one day will be made up the second week. Reason for the early return to the contentment area is to allow the Southwest Missouri armor units (tanks) training and firing time.

Not all Missouri Army National Guardsmen will be going to Camp Ripley Friday morning.

Reservists Call, Draft Hike Hinged to Viet War Needs

Increase In Commitment To Asia, Strongly Hinted

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The armed services have submitted tentative estimates for Reserves and National Guard call-ups totaling more than 200,000 men, it was learned today.

Informed sources stressed that the estimates were still for planning purposes in the event a decision should be made to order up Reservists and Guardsmen in the growing crisis over South Viet Nam.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today new U.S. troop increases in South Viet Nam would make it necessary to consider calling up military reserves, extending tours of duty and enlarging draft calls.

McNamara, Ambassador-designate Henry Cabot Lodge, and Gen Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, are to leave for Saigon tonight on a weeklong survey which is generally expected to result in a decision to make substantial increases in the U.S. forces in Viet Nam.

At a forenoon news conference, McNamara said the Communists have forces in the country which they have not yet used and he therefore predicted new Red military operations.

"The Viet Cong are continuing to increase in South Viet Nam," McNamara said. "They have forces in the country they have not yet assigned to combat."

"We can expect further increases in Viet Cong operations because of forces not yet assigned to combat."

President Johnson had disclosed Tuesday that calling reserves to active duty and enlarging draft quotas were under consideration but said that no decisions would be made pending the return of the McNamara survey group.

"We will do whatever is necessary," Johnson told a news conference.

He also forecast that "new and serious decisions" will have to be made.

McNamara said the purpose of the trip to Viet Nam is to review U.S. force levels, the number of American troops to be assigned there under present plans, and the level of equipment and supplies for waging the anti-Communist war.

"If forces are increased in strength," McNamara said in response to a question, "it will be necessary to consider calling up reserves, and extending tours (of men now in military service) and increasing the draft calls."

Communist Envoys As US Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most Communist diplomatic personnel stationed in the United States are a dangerous threat to national security, J. Edgar Hoover said today.

"The great majority of the 800 Communist-bloc official personnel stationed in the United States," the FBI director said, "protected by the privilege of diplomatic immunity have engaged in intelligence assignments and are a dangerous threat to the security of the United States."

In a fiscal year-end report pointing with pride to FBI accomplishments, Hoover said members of the American Communist party "continued to constitute a major disruptive influence on the national scene" during the year.

He added: "Concentrating particularly on youth, Communists launched widespread propaganda campaigns designed to enlist support for a determined and vicious attack on American foreign policies and to foment confusion and create disorder in regard to the nation's efforts to resolve the racial situation."

Hoover echoed the opinion of his superior, Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, in emphasizing that racial and student demonstrations that went on throughout the year were neither instigated nor controlled by Communists.

Sheppard Denied Case Re-Hearing

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Sam Sheppard was denied a rehearing today of a federal court order to return him to prison on a life sentence for the 1954 slaying of his first wife.

The split decision by the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals sets the stage for an appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court by the 42-year-old Cleveland osteopath who won at least temporary freedom last July 16.

Sheppard married Ariane Tebbenhjohans, a German divorcee he met by mail, two days after a federal district judge ordered him released from Ohio Penitentiary on grounds he had not received a fair trial in the slaying of his first wife. The Sheppards have lived quietly in a Cleveland suburb, awaiting final action in the case.

The appellate court held by a 2-1 vote on May 5 that Sheppard's appeal did not show a violation of federal constitutional rights. Today's denial of a rehearing also was 2-1.

Sheppard's wife, Ariane, said he was in a neighborhood market when the word of the denial reached him. She added they had not yet reached his attorney, F. Lee Bailey, in Boston.

"We were prepared by Mr. Bailey that 95 per cent of such appeals are rejected, but we felt we had a good case and were hopeful they would rehear the case with the full bench," she told The Associated Press.

"What I am more concerned about right now is that he will be able to stay free on bond. There's no question about our appealing to the Supreme Court."

The appeals court clerk's office said Sheppard has five days in which to ask for another stay of the order to send him back to prison. A stay would be sought if an appeal is filed with the U.S. Supreme Court.

Sheppard's lawyer vowed after the earlier decision to carry the case to the highest court. He also had sought a hearing before all six judges of the appeals court, but this was denied today.

Sheppard has consistently denied killing his pregnant wife, Marilyn, contending she was slain by a bushy-haired intruder in their suburban Cleveland home July 4, 1954. He said he was knocked unconscious by the intruder.

Sheppard was convicted of second-degree murder after a widely publicized trial and entered prison on a life sentence July 20, 1955.

He has said he would like another trial. Any new trial would be on the original indictment for first-degree murder, which can carry a death sentence.

Lightning Hits Home

Heavy Rainfall Creates Havoc

A heavy rainstorm with accompanying winds and lightning left behind 3.98 inches of water in a three-hour period between 2 and 5 a. m. Wednesday and Sedalia's overburdened storm drainage ditches boiled out at many locations in the city, flooding at least one residence.

Police Sgt. Perry Franklin said he and Officer William Burnham were on patrol during the rainstorm and entered the Woodlawn addition on a hunch that water might be threatening some of the residences. They found water surrounding the residence at 2610 North Woodlawn and by means of a loudspeaker alerted the family. Sedalia fire truck No. 2 also went to the scene to assist in the emergency.

Franklin said water was several inches deep in the residence and the interior of their police car was flooded while they were parked in the street. The Brushy Creek drainage ditch flows through the Woodlawn addition. During the storm police were plagued with burglar alarms tripping through mechanical difficulties at various business places. Alarms were sounded at Bichsel's Jewelry, Midwest Auto Supply, both Bing's Supermarkets, Canteen Service, Bard's Drug and Missouri State Bank. For a time police headquarters was out of touch with patrol cars about 3 a.m. when the base radio set ceased to function. A serviceman was called and service was restored in short order.

While the rainfall was heavy, it set no records. A glance back through Democrat-Capital logs showed the rain was the largest, however, since Sept. 14, 1961, when the city measured 4.24 inches. A real gully washer fell April 16, 1960, when 5.8 inches was accounted for.

City officials received several reports of sanitary sewers backing up and there was one report of waste backing into a sink and bathtub.

No Formal Action Taken

Student Smoking Problem Aired By School Board

Smith-Cotton High School's policy of permitting smoking in the school cafeteria came under fire at the monthly meeting of the Board of Education Tuesday night, but while the discussion pointed up many of the problems of youthful smoking no formal action was taken by the board.

Carol Strode, 211 East 24th, started the discussion as the meeting opened when he asked board members for their stand on the smoking rule. Strode's daughter, Merrilee, a Smith-Cotton student, was one of two students who wrote a letter to The Democrat-Capital last week calling for a complete ban of smoking on the school property.

Board members present were in unison on their belief in confining the school's smoking to a specified area as a measure of control. A ban on smoking would drive students off school property and into automobiles to smoke, the board believes.

In apparent answer to the letter to The Democrat-Capital's letters to the editor column hinting that the board did not discuss the problem completely, C. W. Hurr, board president, said that the issue "was not brushed under the rug."

"We discussed it very fully and the consensus was that what is being done is probably the best that can be done. We felt that stopping the smoking would not solve the problem, but only drive it elsewhere."

One member of the Parent-Teachers Association juvenile protection committee complained about reports of heavy smoking in the cafeteria restrooms making it nearly impossible for non-smoking students to get inside. Superintendent of Schools Dr. T. J. Norris acknowledged that.

Deep Penetration Over Cong Lines

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Vietnamese planes blasted a 1.5-square-mile area 40 miles south of Da Nang, a guerrilla force of Da Nang for three hours in one of the heaviest air assaults in central Viet Nam in months, a U.S. Air Force spokesman said. The pilots said they could not estimate the damage because 90 per cent of the area was dense jungle.

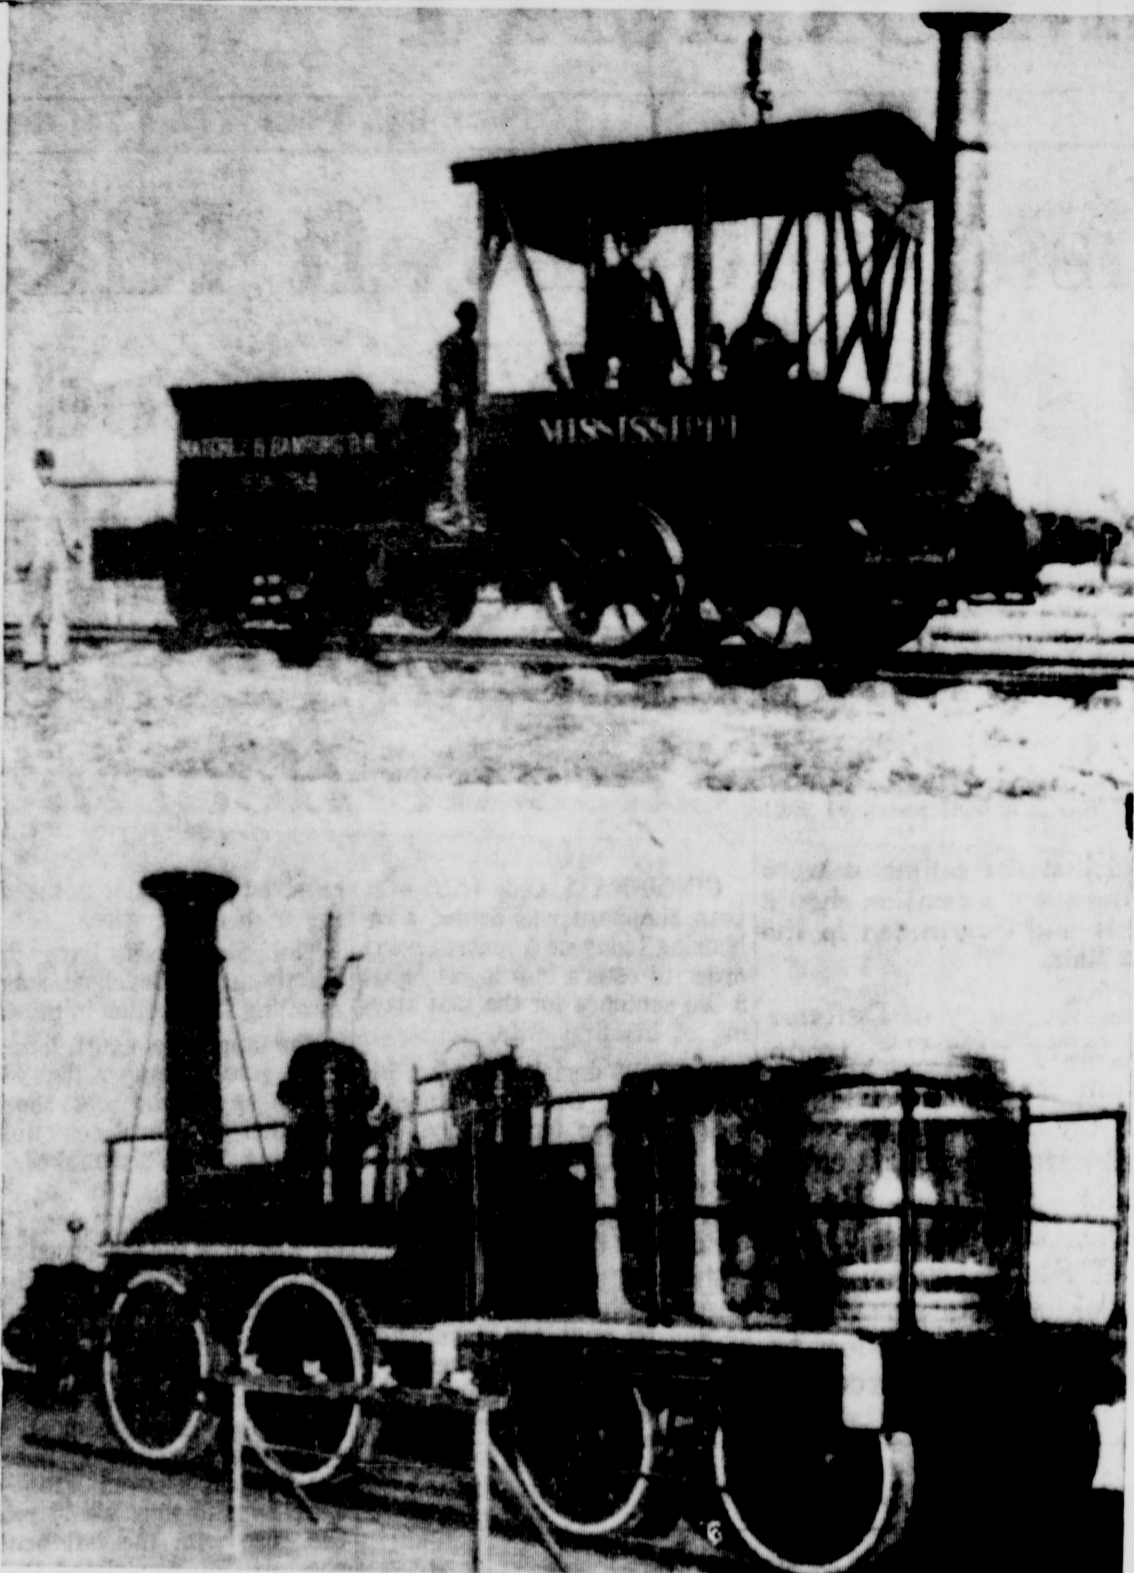

Twenty-five miles southwest of Da Nang, a guerrilla force of unknown strength overran a government outpost at An Hoa, in Quang Nam Province, killing 26 in the garrison and wounding one, a U.S. Army spokesman said. Details were sketchy. It was not known if any Americans were involved.

One U.S. Marine was killed and one wounded Tuesday night in a skirmish with the Viet Cong seven miles northwest of the Da Nang air base, a U.S. Marine spokesman reported. Communist casualties were not known.

The guerrillas opened up with small arms fire while the leathernets were probing the area near the base, the spokesman said.

Dien Bien Phu is 210 miles north-northwest of Hanoi. Ground and air action raged in the area of Da Nang, the air base center 380 miles northeast of Saigon. More than 150 planes attacked a suspected Viet Cong headquarters. Red guerrillas overran a government outpost, killing 26 defenders.

CHICAGO—One of America's oldest railroad locomotives, the "Mississippi," built in 1834 was restored recently to its original form by the Illinois Central Railroad. The locomotive has been on permanent display in the Chicago Museum of Science & Industry since 1938. The restoration involved removal of the cab (top

The "Mississippi" was built in England and shipped to Natchez, Miss., where it was the first train to operate in that state. (UPI Telephoto)

Kansas City Colleges Granted Federal Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Office of Education has approved grants to four colleges in Kansas City, Mo., to aid in a work-study program for the fall term, Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., was informed today.

The grants:

- University of Missouri, Kansas City, $32,183; Metropolitan Junior College, $18,407; Avila College, $13,379 and Rockhurst College, $7,441.

The Public Health Service has approved a $3,034 grant to the Research Hospital and Medical Center, Kansas City, Bolling also announced. The money is for student-nurse program.

Charles M. Edwards To New State Panel

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Gov. Warren E. Hearnes appointed seven members of a new State Hospital Advisory Council Tuesday. It decides on allocation of federal Hill-Burton hospital construction funds.

An eighth member will be appointed later. The council was set up by the 1965 legislature to meet new federal requirements.

Members are:

- Austin Hill of Columbia, director of public health and welfare; William E. Robinson of Jefferson City; Harold Wayman of North Kansas City; Joyce Portnow of Ladue; Charles M. Edwards of Sedalia; Dr. John Sergeant of Sikeston and Mrs. Mary Phillips of Kansas City.

Convention Report To Optimist Club

Lt. Gov. Clinton Black reported on the 47th Optimist International Convention at the regular noon luncheon of the Sedalia Optimist Club held Tuesday at the Hotel Bothwell.

Black outlined the highlights of the convention held in New Orleans last month, and encouraged attendance of other Sedalia Optimists at future conventions. Black is past president of the local club, and is currently serving as zone Lt. Governor with eight clubs in western Missouri under his jurisdiction.

Also on the program of the club was a report of the Soccer activity which the club has sponsored in past years. Paul Klover, director of the local soccer program reported on the activity last year and gave projected plans for the upcoming season. Klover said present plans call for four leagues of six teams each with a potential of almost 400 boys playing, on teams sponsored by local groups.

The meeting was presided over by President Wray Schroeder. Joe Forsee gave the invocation.

Reapportioning Veto Would Call Special Session

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—If the people reject a reapportionment proposal at the Aug. 17 special election, Gov. Warren E. Hearnes says he probably would have to call a special session of the legislature soon afterward.

He said there is no use worrying about all the possible problems until the verdict of the people becomes known on the constitutional amendment to increase the size of the House from 163 to 168.

Some of the contingencies hinge on what the federal court might do with a bill the governor plans to sign Thursday setting up the 168 new House districts.

If the court finds the bill fails to meet its one-man-one-vote decree, Hearnes said the legislature might have to try again—or the court might do the redistricting job itself.

The governor said he was aware that some precincts were omitted from the new districts. But he said that also is a problem for the court.

Three precincts in Clay County and one in Buchanan reportedly were left out. If necessary, Hearnes suggested that mistake could be corrected at next January's special budget session.

A Singer By A Fluke, Abdicates

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — John Leyton, the young British actor, is a modern rarity — an abdicated rock 'n' roll idol.

"I became a singer by a fluke," he says. "I never wanted to be a singer — so I don't sing anymore. I do want to be an actor. So, I act."

John was called upon to play a rock 'n' roll singer in a London television show a few years ago.

"The producers wanted to pre-record my song with a professional rock 'n' roll singer. Although I had never sung professionally before, I insisted that I sing the song myself. I suppose I was being difficult."

The recording of the song zoomed to the top of the British charts. In his first year as a singer, Leyton's records of "Johnny, Remember Me," "Wild Wind," "Son, This Is She" and "Lonely City," sold more than two million records.

"I remember one night at a Liverpool concert, I headlined the show and the opening act was a group of long-haired local kids. I didn't think they would ever make it."

"They were 'The Beatles', of course."

The Mirisch brothers, looking toward the European teen-age market, signed John for his movie debut in "The Great Escape."

"Then I spent two more seasons traveling all over Europe on singing tours — until I realized that I wanted to act most of all."

"So, I just quit singing. Even though it meant a drop in income."

His father is a theater owner, his mother an actress.

With that background, he enrolled in the Actor's Workshop in London and then joined the York Repertory Theater.

"Rep is the greatest training ground in the world," says Leyton. "Everything comes easy after that."

Leyton, under contract to 20th Century-Fox, since his role in "Von Ryan's Express," now is settled in Hollywood.

Mr. Clyde David Medlin, organist, accompanied Mr. Eric Thompson as he sang "Always," "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of imported peau de soie, fashioned with a round neckline and long sleeves, tapering to points over the wrists. The controlled skirt drifted into a chapel train and split floating panels fell from the back waistline. Re-embroidered Alencon lace with pearls trimmed the bodice, the front of the skirt and back panels.

Her veil of imported silk illusion was hand rolled and secured by a Chantilly lace pearl trimmed pill box, accented with an organza rose. She wore a bell shaped diamond pendant necklace, a gift from the bridegroom and carried a white Bible covered with three white Japanese orchids, accented with white roses.

The bride chose her sister, Miss Linda Engelbrecht, as maid of honor. She wore a pink peau de soie street length dress, covered with matching pink lace. The bodice was fashioned with short sleeves and a round neckline. The waist was accented with a contrasting belt and panels of pink peau de soie fell from the waistline over the skirt. Her headpiece was of forget-me-nots, holding a circular face length veil. She carried a bouquet of carnations affixed with greenery and pink ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Barry, cousin of the bride, and Miss Janet Fisher, both of California. They were dressed like the maid of honor and carried similar flowers.

Miss Rhonda Sue Kirchoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kirchoff, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink brocade dress accented with a pink velvet bow in front. A white lace basket, which she carried, was filled with red rosebuds and petals.

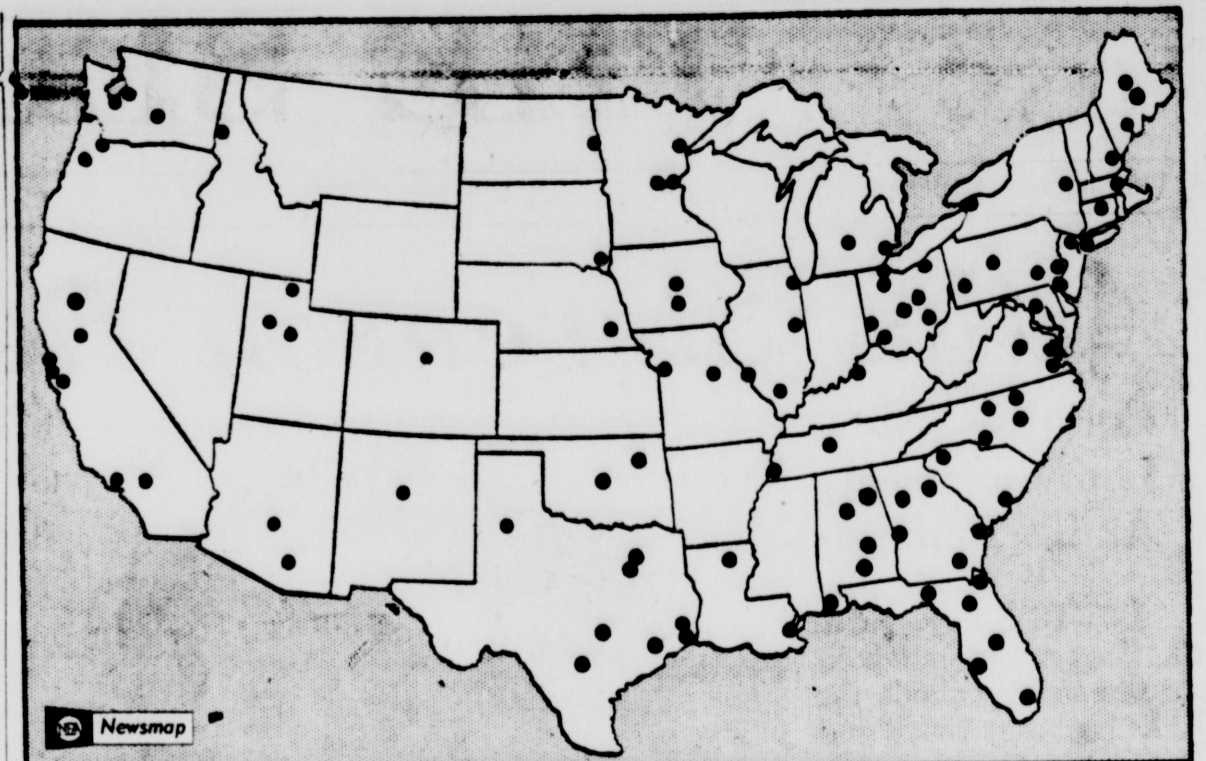

Candlelighters were Miss Carol Ruth Engelbrecht, sister of the bride, and Miss Diane Strother, sister of the bridegroom. They were attired in pink brocade dresses accented with matching front bows.

Best man was Mr. Douglas A. Strother. Groomsman were Mr. David L. Gillilan and Mr. Craig Berry, both of California.

Master Mark Dampf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dampf, was ringbearer.

Ushers were: Mr. Earl Engelbrecht, brother of the bride; Mr. Ronald Kirchoff, brother-in-law of the bride; Mrs. George Oesterly, cousin of the bridegroom; Mr. Jim Worsham, Louisiana, Mo., and Mr. David Keele, Sedalia, college classmates of the bridegroom.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church parlors. Serving were Mrs. Ronald Kirchoff, sister of the bride, Miss Peggy White, Miss Carolyn Phillips and Miss Shirley Affolter, all of California.

Miss Teri Ann Bieri and Miss Judy Lademann presided at the two guest books. Miss Janice Allee was at the gift table.

The bride and bridegroom are 1962 graduates of California High School. The bridegroom was recently graduated from Central Missouri State College and is employed by State Farm Mutual Insurance Company in Columbia. For a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, the bride wore a yellow suit with black accessories. At her shoulder was a corsage of orchids from her bridal bouquet. The couple will reside in Columbia.

Farm, Home Assets To 377.1 Million

Farm & Home Savings Association, home office, Nevada, Mo., today reported total assets of $377,104,900, according to its mid-year financial statement. The new figure represented an increase of $12,479,108 over the association's Dec. 31, 1964, statement; a growth of $23,805,167 for the past year.

The statement reflects the result of Farm & Home's increase in dividend rate, from 4 per cent to 4 1/4 per cent at the beginning of this year. Savings held by the association were up $12,678,669 for the first six months of 1965 to a new high of $311,889,439.

Farm & Home's Sedalia Manager, J. L. Van Wagner, Jr., Fourth at Osage, also reported today a record dividend distribution at the end of June. Farm & Home's 91,000 savers received $6,366,901 in earnings for the first half of 1965. Since the association was founded in 1893, it has distributed more than $125,000,000 in dividends to its members.

Other figures in the new financial statement show:

Reserves — up $681,996 to $26,210,386;
Liquidity (cash and U. S. Government obligations) — up $7,459,532 to $38,569,741; and Loans — up $5,180,790 to $315,956,047. More than 54 per cent of Farm & Home's loans are either government - guaranteed (GI) or government - insured (FHA).

Think Four Are Victims Of Collapse

TOPEKA (AP)—A family of four had been reported missing since about the time a bridge over the Kansas River collapsed here July 2.

Capt. Glenn Bowers of the Shawnee County sheriff's office said the family was reported to have had a green and white car resembling the vehicle which witnesses said they saw plunge into the river.

Bowers identified the family as Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Ellis and their children Cynthia, 4, and Anne, 3.

He said parents of Mrs. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Holley of Havensville had reported the Ellis family had not been heard from since they were scheduled to leave Topeka July 1 for Las Vegas, Nev., or Phoenix, Ariz.

Ellis had been employed recently by a Topeka construction firm. Acquaintances said that at one time Ellis had been a serviceman stationed at Schilling Air Force Base, Salina.

The body of Kenneth Allen was recovered from the river in his automobile a few hours after the bridge collapsed.

Several witnesses told authorities they saw a second vehicle thrown into the river when the bridge gave way, but a several-day search failed to uncover any trace of a second car.

Some witnesses said a man, woman and two children were in the car.

Bowers asked that anyone having information about the Ellis family contact the sheriff's office.

Holley said his daughter and her family had not shown up at Phoenix, but may have gone to Las Vegas. "They haven't showed up or called," he said, and added that he did not know how to reach them.

Jackson County Demands Bond For Mrs. Kinne

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Jackson County prosecutor's office issued an execution order against an Indianapolis bonding company Tuesday for the $25,000 bond forfeited when Mrs. Sharon Kinne did not appear for trial.

The order gives the United Bonding Insurance Co. 15 days to satisfy the execution and judgment.

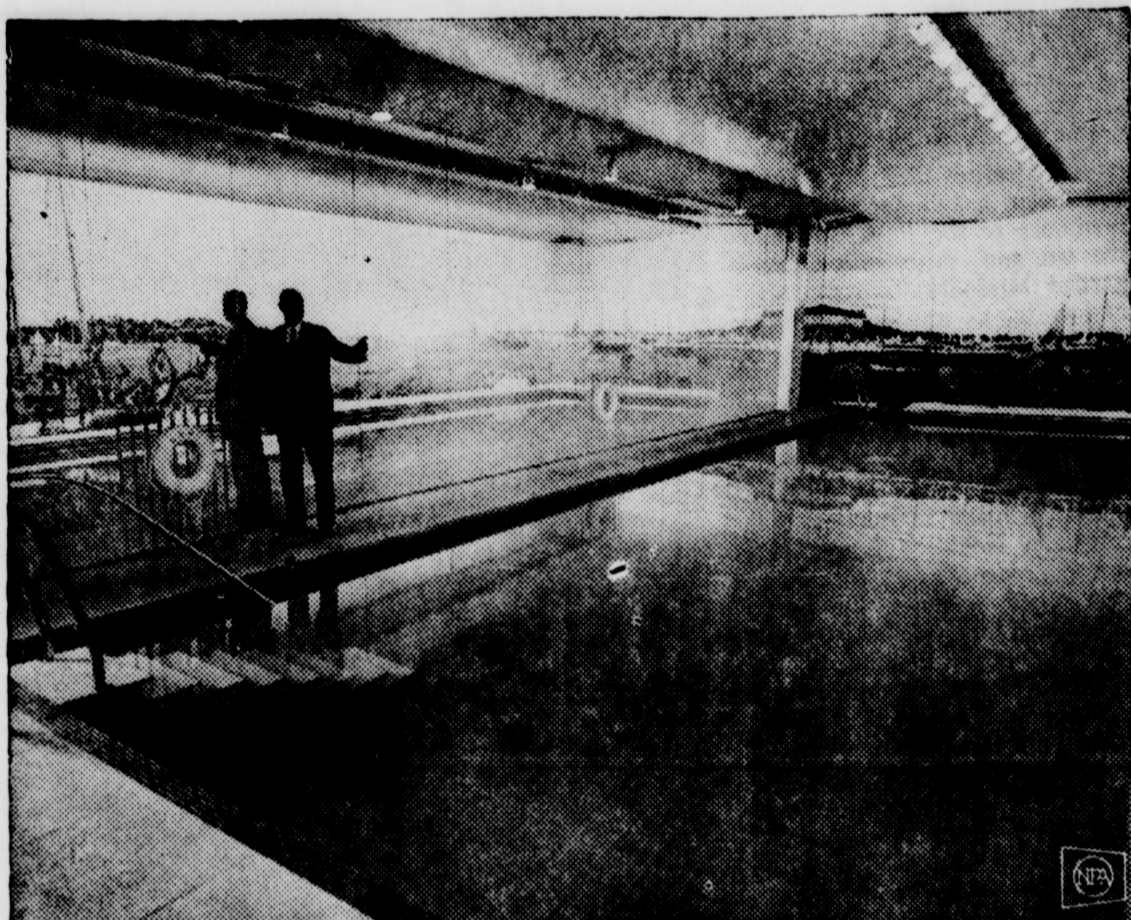

Mrs. Kinne's bond was ordered forfeited after she did not appear last Oct. 26 for her fourth trial in the 1960 fatal shooting of her husband, James A. Kinne at their home in Independence, Mo.

She was in jail in Mexico City at the time in the slaying there last September of Francisco Parades Odonez. She is still in jail there awaiting the verdict of a judge on the murder charge against her.

The prosecutor's office said that since United Bonding has no assets in Missouri, the execution order will be given to the state superintendent of insurance. The firm's license to operate in Missouri could be revoked if it fails to pay the judgment.

Green Light In Legal Battle Over 'Harlow'

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — The Jackson County Circuit Court has a green light to proceed in a legal battle over the book "Harlow."

The Missouri Supreme Court ruled Tuesday that Circuit Judge Richard Jensen could decide on a court action related to the late movie actress Jean Harlow, on whose life the book is based.

The father of the late actress, Dr. Mont Clair Carpenter, had filed with the state's high court to bar Judge Jensen from ruling on the case. Co-filers with Dr. Carpenter were the Random House and Dell Publishing Co. Inc., publishers, and Ward Parkway Book Shop, Inc., of Kansas City.

Dr. Carpenter had filed a $3 million damage suit against the publishers and book sellers on three counts of libel and invasion of privacy.

The move to block Judge Jensen came after the judge told Dr. Carpenter's lawyers that he intended to dismiss the libel and invasion of privacy counts related to Miss Harlow.

The judge also said he would overrule a motion by the publishers and book sellers to dismiss the other libel count which covers alleged damage to Dr. Carpenter.

Rights Forces Preparing For Demonstrations

BOGALUSA, La. (AP) — Civil rights forces prepared for stepped up demonstrations today after rejecting the governor's plea for a 30-day truce.

"They made a tragic mistake," said Gov. John J. McKeithen, who flew here Tuesday from Baton Rouge to confer with the Bogalusa Civic and Voters League executive board.

Before flying back to the capital, McKeithen ordered the 375 state troopers on emergency duty here to confiscate every gun they see anywhere around future demonstrations.

Guns are not illegal unless concealed. But the governor ordered them seized, anyhow.

Militants on both sides have been keeping guns handy — usually in nearby parked cars. A white man was shot and seriously wounded last week when

Two Softball Teams In Free-for-All

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The Clark County sheriff's office sent several deputies Tuesday night to break up a bat-swinging free-for-all between two softball teams.

One man was hospitalized with a possible concussion. Another player was treated at the hospital and released.

Deputies said the fight started over an umpire's decision during the game between teams from the Lutheran Inner Mission and Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

he attacked Negroes at a protest march.

The league's civil rights drive is backed by the Congress of Racial Equality and the controversial, unaffiliated Deacons of Defense and Justice — an armed Negro defensive group.

Segregation forces include the Ku Klux Klan, which claims great strength in this southeast county.

Collinson 'Real Credit' To Bench

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—"We hate to lose Judge William R. Collinson from his present position but most certainly he will be a real credit to the federal bench."

Those were the words of Wayne T. Walker, president of the Greene County Bar Association, after Judge Collinson was named by President Johnson to be a federal judge in the Missouri jurisdiction.

"He has the respect of all attorneys who appear in his court," Walker said. "He has a real engaging personality and he is a fine family man."

"The thing lawyers love about him is that he has such a complete grasp of all legal problems so that he can pass on them immediately."

Walker also pointed out that Collinson, a Democrat, has not had an election opponent since 1932.

A quick wit and a big smile mark Collinson as a warm, friendly man. He loves to fish and hunt. He has been on the circuit court bench here since November, 1949, when Gov. Forrest Smith selected him to fill a vacancy.

Collinson received an AB degree from Drury College here and in 1935 was graduated from the University of Missouri school of law. From 1935 until 1949, he practiced law here except for a year with a Kansas City law firm and three years in the Navy in World War II.

He was elected Greene County prosecutor in 1940 and was re-elected in 1942 but resigned the following year to enter the Navy.

The judge is a former member of the board of governors of the Missouri Bar Association and former president of the Missouri Council of Juvenile Court Judges. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Masons, Shrine, Elks and the Lambda Chi Alpha and Phi Delta Phi fraternities.

Nominates Two For District Judgeships

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson today nominated Elmo Hunter of Kansas City and William B. Collinson of Springfield to be U.S. district judges in Missouri.

Hunter has been judge of the Kansas City Court of Appeals since 1957. Before that he was judge of the Jackson County Circuit Court.

He was born in St. Louis 49 years ago. He got his law degree at the University of Missouri in Columbia in 1938.

Collinson has been judge of the 31st Judicial Circuit of Missouri since 1949. Before that he practiced law in Springfield briefly, following a hitch in the U.S. Navy. Collinson is 52. He also got his law degree at the state university.

Accidents

Two autos collided at Broadway and Limit at 11:08 a. m. Wednesday resulting in damage to both.

Police listed the vehicles involved as a 1962 Ford, driven south on Limit by Mary Louise Beck, 49, Fontanelle, Ia., and a 1959 Ford, driven west on Broadway by Paul N. Gebhart, 41, Kenosha, Wis.

Police Report

Maurice Campbell, 2417 North Woodlawn, reported the theft of two pair of trousers from his auto while it was parked at Third and Lamine. The trousers were valued at a total of $14.

Circuit Court

A Circuit Court jury returned a damage verdict of $2,000 in favor of Lucille L. Ballah, of Route 3, in court Wednesday morning at the conclusion of a 12-day trial arising out of a three-vehicle accident Nov. 4, 1963, at Broadway and Griffith.

Mrs. Ballah was a passenger in one of the cars involved and the damages were assessed against one of two defendants in the case, Edward Allman, Sugar Creek, Mo. Judge Frank W. Hayes sustained a motion for directed verdict and dismissed action against the second defendant in the suit, Richard H. Price, Sedalia, driver of the other car involved.

The plaintiff had sought damages of $25,000 in the original petition.

Jury members retired to deliberate at 10:53 a. m. and returned with the verdict at 11:30 a. m.

James R. Cox was granted a divorce from Marjorie Cox in Circuit Court Wednesday. George H. Miller was his attorney.

To Resume Talks On Laclede Gas Tieup

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A group of union officials assured Gov. Warren E. Hearnes today they would resume negotiations Thursday in an effort to settle their strike with Laclede Gas Co. of St. Louis.

Hearnes sent both the union and the company officials telegrams last Saturday urging them to settle their differences at the bargaining table in the public interest.

Today's delegation was headed by John Coleman, international vice president of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers, and Lawrence A. Langford, union business manager.

vent the practice will be intensified next fall.

"I think the situation is one that needs inspection," board member Robert Johnson said. "But I also feel that the way this has been handled in the past is proper. I would suggest that we continue it and improve our controls if possible."

Strode argued, however, that the board was in effect condoning a practice proven harmful to health.

"You're asking us to hire either more teachers or other personnel to police some 1,800 students," said board member David Martin. "The board is trying to do the lesser of two evils. We're in wholehearted agreement that smoking is harmful, but we can't stop it."

Board member William O. Hiatt said it was his belief that if smoking was banned automobiles might not be able to drive up Massachusetts for students smoking in and across the street from the cafeteria.

The cafeteria fronts on the street, which is public property, and the school would apparently have no control of student behavior off school grounds.

Also in attendance was Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Fritz, who had been asked to attend by members of the PTA. He read the old and practically disregarded Missouri statute which makes it a misdemeanor for children between the ages of 10 and 18 to smoke in a public place. Fritz indicated, however, that he had no plans to start rigid enforcement of the old statute — although he did say that if a valid complaint was signed he would have no choice but to prosecute.

In other business, the board accepted Liberty School District No. 28, South of Sedalia, for annexation to the Sedalia district.

The board received a letter from John Houston, president of the Liberty district, reporting the results of a special vote of Liberty patrons on April 17 which ended in a 39-30 vote favoring annexation to Sedalia.

Liberty district had been involved in some technical difficulties when ballots were burned before counting after a first vote on the annexation proposal on April 1. Dr. Norris said the ballots were destroyed on belief that the Liberty district did not adjoin the Sedalia district as required. But on further investigation it was pointed out, Norris said, that the district did adjoin Anderson district which is now a part of the Sedalia system.

County Superintendent of Schools C. F. Scotten argued the second election was invalid as school law provides that such annexation votes must be two years apart. The State Department of Education, however, upheld the validity of the second election.

The board opened bids on cleaning of band uniforms, new musical instruments and supplies and a duplicating machine for the superintendent's office.

Dorn-Cloney of Sedalia was the lowest of five bidders at $116.96 for cleaning of the uniforms, which includes 100 senior high uniforms, 66 junior high, 16 blazers and six majorette uniforms.

Central Office Equipment Co., Columbia, was awarded the duplicating machine bid on a best bid basis at a price of $249.95 with trade-in of the old machine. There were four other bidders.

Instruments and music supplies were accepted item by item on a best bid basis.

Bryant Motor Company was the only bidder to provide the school district with a cost-free automobile for driver's education classes for the 1965-66 school year. The school must provide liability insurance, fuel and etc. for the auto, but fire, theft and collision insurance is maintained by the auto agency.

The board accepted the resignation of Miss Beulah Harris, mathematics teacher at Smith-Cotton, who has decided to retire.

School football and accident insurance was again awarded to the Yount Insurance Agency. Football practice is scheduled to begin Aug. 16.

Although the board had not planned to become entangled in the financial affairs of Project Headstart, the summer kindergarten program for underprivileged youngsters, such is now the case.

Superintendent Norris explained it was the original intention that the project director handle the Headstart program in its entirety, but since the Sedalia school district is the sponsoring agency the check from the federal office of Economic Opportunity was made to the school district.

Funds therefore must pass through the district treasury and the board was required to give its formal approval to these Headstart personnel: Mary Lou Schwenk, Jettie Lawson, Betty Sue Griffith, Gloria Shepard, Novella Jones, teachers; Suzanne Slanker Garlich, speech correctionist; Bettye Murrell, nurse; Tony Giger, Lillian Ray, Sally L. Jones, Lillian Newbill, Mary Jane Coxon, student

Patrolman 'Kidnaped' From Jersey Police

STANHOPE, N.J. (AP)—Patrolman "D" — that stands for dummy — has been kidnapped.

Police Chief Jerome Diehl disclosed the deed Tuesday night as he and this north Jersey community's other police officer continued their hunt.

Patrolman "D" began his career six weeks ago when he was dressed in policeman's blues and placed in a mockup police car along Route 206 as a warning to speeding motorists.

"Somebody took him Sunday night," Chief Diehl said. "We kept it secret in the hope we could catch up with the thief."

The chief said it cost his department $25 to outfit Patrolman "D".

covered Highway 65 north of Sedalia for several hours, but traffic was not halted and motorists proceeded with caution through the shallow water.

Route H near the Buena Vista Rest Home was blocked for a while when Sewer Branch overflowed to the north. Route 127 south of Sweet Springs was blocked.

Lightning struck the Southern Hills residence of Keith Zahringer on Route 2 about 3:15 a. m. and Pettis County firemen responded to the alarm. Zahringer had already applied a garden hose to the blaze when firemen arrived, but one fireman was overcome by smoke as they continued firefighting efforts. The fireman was Sherman Howard and he recovered sufficiently without requiring hospitalization.

Damage to the Zahringer residence consisted mostly of water and smoke damage, but it was considerable, firemen said. While firemen were at the Zahringer home, another alarm was received reporting a barn on fire at the Alva Rasa residence, Georgetown. Firemen apparently did not hear the radio call, however, due to a malfunction in an outside speaker. A Sedalia police car was dispatched to report the alarm.

The county firefighters weren't able to save the barn, however, and damage was estimated at $500. The structure contained some feed, but no livestock. Mrs. Rasa told firemen she awoke and noticed the barn all afire.

Lightning was believed to have started the blaze.

Collinson, Hunter Named Jurists by LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson announced today he has chosen Elmo B. Hunter of Kansas City and William R. Collinson of Springfield to be U. S. district judges in Missouri.

Hunter was picked for the Western District, to succeed Floyd R. Gibson, who has become a circuit judge.

Collinson would serve the Eastern and Western districts of the state to replace Judge Richard M. Duncan, who has retired.

Select Site For Missouri Mental Clinics

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Albany has been selected as the site of the first of nine new mental retardation clinics to be built in Missouri.

Dr. George A. Ulett, director of the Division of Mental Diseases, announced the site today. If contracts can be let by October, he said the $400,000 clinic should be in operation by next July.

Gov. Warren E. Hearnes is expected to announce the choice of an architect soon.

The Albany clinic will serve a 12-county northwest Missouri area.

Albany was chosen because "it is highly accessible in the northwest region, has adequate professional and non-professional resources which have already been established, a modern general hospital and other necessary supportive assets."

A tract of land for the clinic is being made available without cost to the state. The Albany City Council pledged matching funds of $25,000 and the W. E. Nance Lumber Yard volunteered to furnish all building materials at cost.

person when he collapsed, but the embassy said it was not known who Stevenson's companion was.

In Washington, President Johnson appeared close to tears after being told of Stevenson's death. Shock and sorrow was evident in Congress.

The President was informed of the death by Secretary of State Dean Rusk who had received word by telephone from the U.S. Embassy in London.

Last night he appeared on a television interview over the British Broadcasting Corp. He showed no sign of illness.

Stevenson had been in Europe to attend sessions of the U. N. Economic and Social Council in

Bingo Exempt From Lottery Law On Radio

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A radio station can conduct a bingo game by giving instructions on the air and not run afoul of the lottery laws so long as those playing the game didn't pay any money to participate.

Atty. Gen. Norman H. Anderson provided that ruling today for Harold L. Henry of West Plains, Howell County prosecuting attorney.

Anderson said a radio station, which he did not identify, had raised the question. Bingo cards to play the game would be picked up at the station or at any of the businesses sponsoring the program.

Listeners would not have to buy anything or pay any money to get the cards.

Anderson's opinion noted that there are three essential elements of a lottery—(1) the distribution of prizes, (2) according to chance, (3) for a consideration.

But in the radio bingo game, the element of consideration would be missing and it would not be a lottery.

He had consulted privately with Secretary-General U Thant in Geneva on the Viet Nam crisis.

Fall Fashion Collections Previewed

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Although shoulder straps are missing and hemlines are high on costumes in the new fall collections, the designers expect and are prepared to meet resistance.

"We plan to ship these dresses with extra shoulder straps, just in case," Karen Stark, designer for the Harvey Berin fashion house, told fashion writers Tuesday. The writers are here for the New York Couture Group's semiannual press previews.

As she spoke, several pretty maidens appeared in black or white figure-revealing crepe dinner gowns that clung to one shoulder strap, presumably for security.

Actually, gowns today uphold the bosom snugly enough so that not even one strap is needed to hold them safely in place — and certainly not old-fashioned, flesh-jabbing stays.

There were plenty of interesting and beautiful cases in point, among them shoulderless velvet and satin gowns, the bodices of which were tightly drawn bands of glittering crystals or wispy ostrich plumes.

"The short skirt length is right," said Vincent Montezano, referring to the inch-above-the-knee hems in the coat and suit line created for his fashion house by designer Jacques Tiffreau. "The focus changes as the real fashion interest moves into the jacket itself, particularly the neckline."

Yet Montezano as well as Rudi Gernreich, Ann Fogarty and others who figure prominently in the short, short-skirt story, will lower hems if buyers insist, or make them deep enough to allow women to let them out themselves.

Pleats, A-line cuts or a little gathering at the waist on most of the short skirts in the collection provided plenty of stride room. A few suits with skirts as skinny as they were brief offer the wearer an interesting challenge in sitting down with grace and modesty.

Opens Way For Soviet, US Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the first time in many months President Johnson has some slight hope of improving U.S.-Soviet relations despite the bitter differences between the two powers over the war in Viet Nam.

The break in a long diplomatic stalemate came late Monday when the Soviet Embassy here notified the U.S. Disarmament Agency — to the complete surprise of administration officials — that the Soviet government agreed to resume disarmament talks at Geneva.

Exactly the opposite Soviet response, if there was any response at all, had been expected. U.S. officials believe that the Soviet government did not wish at this time of rivalry with Red China and dispute with the United States over the crisis in Southeast Asia to get into any position of appearing to cooperate with the United States.

Up to a few days ago the whole line of Kremlin foreign policy toward the United States had been antagonistic. Washington's feeling was that the Russians were not looking for really serious trouble with the United States but neither could they tolerate any real improvement in relations.

The dominant attitude within the administration here is still one of deep skepticism about progress on the great disarmament issues, but at least the way has been opened for their discussion.

The date of the disarmament talks has not yet been finally determined. U.S. disarmament policy chief William C. Foster has suggested July 27 and the agreement of the Soviet Union and other members of the 17-nation conference is expected on that or some date close to it.

U.S. officials intend to make proposals primarily for agreements to halt the spread of nuclear weapons in the world and to expand the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, concluded in 1963. The United States wants to prohibit underground tests as well as those in the atmosphere.

Claims World Record On Ferris Wheel

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Jim Bakich, 19, a San Jose City College freshman, today claimed a world record on the ferris wheel — 14 days of continual revolution.

The student slept, ate, listened to a radio and talked on a phone while aboard the ferris wheel gondola, located in a San Jose amusement park. He staggered slightly as he landed Tuesday, but said he was feeling fine.

War Decision Waits Result Of Survey

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Henry Cabot Lodge leave for Saigon tonight on a week-long war survey likely to lead to a heavy new increase in U.S. combat forces in South Viet Nam.

This prospective commitment of fighting men may result in turn in a call-up of thousands of military reservists and an increase in draft quotas. President Johnson disclosed such steps are under consideration but his decisions will await the return of Lodge, who has been nominated as ambassador to Saigon, and McNamara.

"We will do whatever is necessary," Johnson told a news conference Tuesday in charging increased aggression against South Viet Nam from the Communist north and reaffirming U.S. determination to defeat it.

"It is quite possible that new and serious decisions will be necessary in the near future," he said. His news conference statement amounted to an alert to the American people of possible grim news in the offing. It could also be read as one more warning to the Communists that the United States will not see South Viet Nam conquered.

Johnson refused, in response to a specific question, to rule out the possibility of a major land war in Asia because, he said, no one can prophesy what the coming weeks or months will bring.

McNamara and Lodge will confer in Saigon with retiring Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor and with Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. troop commander, as well as other American officials and Vietnamese leaders.

"When they return next week," Johnson said, "we will give careful consideration to their recommendations, as well as those of Ambassador Taylor and Gen. Westmoreland. We will do what is necessary."

Already, he emphasized, it is evident that "increased aggression from the north may require an increased American response on the ground in South Viet Nam." This same aggression, Johnson said, makes it necessary to continue bombing "selected military targets" in North Viet Nam.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Internal Security subcommittee in a pamphlet has called the American Friends Service Committee a "well-known transmission belt for the Communist apparatus."

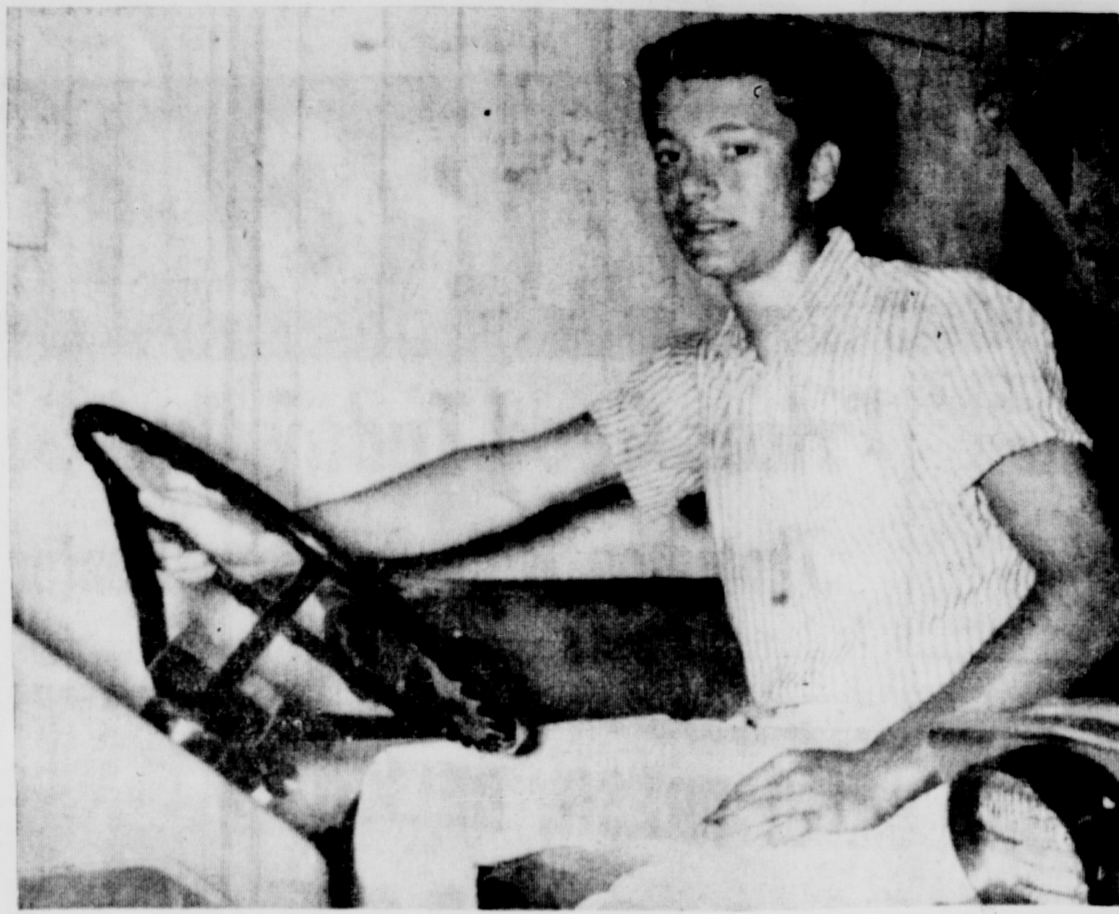

Colin W. Bell, executive secretary of the AFSC, said at Swarthmore, Pa.: "We cannot make any sense out of the quotations as given in the article... we will decide on the action to take when we have read exactly what has been written in the report. There is no use trying to comment on what now sounds like gibberish to us."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Association of Broadcasters has promised cooperation with a Federal Communications Commission policy to tone down "objectionably loud" radio and television commercials.

Wasilewski said the FCC policy statement was premature and the problem involves "subjective elements and is so complex that no solutions have yet become apparent."

On Monday, after a two-year study, the FCC demanded that announcers avoid delivering commercials "in a loud, rapid and strident manner, with the maximum number of words crammed into the time period."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed a $14.2 billion appropriation for 27 government agencies and a $7.9 billion bill to run the Agriculture Department. Both amounts were higher than the House had approved, so they will go to Senate-House conferences to adjust the differences.

Whale Trip Progressing Normally

SOINTULA, B.C. (AP) — Four-ton Namu, the killer whale who blundered into a salmon net, plowed on toward United States waters today — and nobody seemed to know the answer to the question:

What does the law have to say about taking a live whale across an international border?

The best guess: nothing.

"Nobody has asked me this before," said Samuel Hutchinson, regional director of the U.S. Bureau of Fisheries in Seattle, Wash. "We have never been confronted with this problem."

"They're free to export so far as we're concerned," said Canadian Fisheries officer Maurice Houghton in Vancouver, B.C. "We have export regulations covering salmon, but —"

The 22-foot whale has been purchased by Seattle aquarium operator Ted Griffin, who paid $8,000 to the two fishermen who netted him at Namu, B.C. A 49-60-foot pen was built for "This is ridiculous," said Dadsell. "How can this happen?"

Injured In Accident

NEW YORK (AP) — Martin Julie Louis, 43, of Fort Lauderdale, was injured Tuesday night from a subway platform into the well of the tracks, and two cars of a train passed over him. He suffered an injured hip.

Namu at Namu and the whale, pen and all, is being towed the 400 miles to Seattle.

Pays Traffic Fine

LAUREL, Del. (AP) — Nelson N. Spence Jr. of nearby Bethel paid $25 and costs after his conviction of speeding Monday.

Delaware State Trooper J.P. Esham told Magistrate J. Alton Knowles that Spence was doing 75 miles per hour in a 55-mile zone.

Then Esham was arraigned before Knowles on a warrant charging that he drove 32 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone.

The warrant was signed by Nelson N. Spence, Sr., a passenger in his son's car. He said the violation occurred as Esham led the Spence car to the magistrate's office.

Ex-Sedalian Honored At K State U

Charles (Chuck) Powers, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Powers of Great Bend, Kans., formerly of Sedalia, who is a Kansas State University senior in journalism, has been named the year's top collegiate journalist by the William Randolph Hearst

Charles Powers

Foundation. He received, in addition to the honor, a six-day trip to Washington, D. C. and New York City and $1,200 in prize money.

Powers won the title after competing in a write-off contest with eight other student journalists from across the nation who had placed in the top ten at least twice in monthly news writing contests held during the school year.

His champion write off assignment was to assume he was a Russian newspaper reporter writing a news story for a paper in Russia about the latest space vehicle launching in the Soviet. This story and research had to be competed and back to Heart headquarters within three days.

President Johnson presented to Powers a gold medalion for excellence in journalism, the ceremony taking place in the rose garden at the White House.

Powers moved to Sedalia and attended Whittier School one year and had two years at Smith - Cotton. He graduates from K-State in January 1966 and served as editor of the Kansas State Collegian during 1964. He worked as a general assignments reporter for the Kansas City Star last summer. His address is 812 Thurston, Manhattan, Kans.

Big Variety Of Fashions In Preview

NEW YORK (AP) — Women's fashions often start out as a laughing matter and wind up with the whole family taking them seriously, and wearing them, too.

The evidence to support this theory was presented Monday by pretty girls, handsome men, and cute children who tripped across the stepping stones in the lily pond of a famous restaurant wearing a variety of such fashions in textiles by Burlington Mills.

In the audience were more than 250 fashion writers here for the New York Couture Group's fall style previews.

Take those zany-patterned stockings for women which men hooted at last year. This year the Argyles are even gaudier. But men are not laughing. They are wearing the same kinds of socks with their golf knickers — yes, men are wearing knickers again. The same leg art in diminutive size is for the small fry.

Take up art. Everybody is — including men in geometric sportswear and toddlers in dots and dashes.

Take the Andre Courregé's look. Paris did, after snickering at the Frenchman who made baby-doll clothes — boots, bonnets, and high-waisted, high-hem dresses — for grown-up ladies. The American woman has bought it—even as lingerie.

Those bold-black stripes on his short-welt-seamed white dresses from the winter collection criss-crossed white petticoats in the same fashion at Monday's show. Another model wore a striped suspender jumper. All peered through Courregé-style opaque sunglasses — exaggerated to the size of saucers.

Beer Draws Many Into RR Tunnel

JACUMBA, Calif. (AP) — Two motorcyclists roared into a train tunnel.

A few minutes later, having timed things badly, they roared back out. A few inches behind them was a train.

What was at the other end of the tunnel — and worth a confrontation with a diesel locomotive?

Beer. Thousands of cases of it — all there for the taking.

The only problem was getting it out.

Last May 5, 11 cars of a San Diego, Arizona and Eastern Railway train derailed north of Jacumba, in eastern San Diego County near the Mexican border. Two truck vans loaded with beer tumbled off a flatcar into 1,000-foot-deep Carriso Gorge.

The railroad figured the beer — 72,000 cans — was a complete loss.

Adventurous San Diego County youths figured otherwise. They heard about the beer, and headed for Carriso Gorge.

"It must be one of the most inaccessible places in the state," said a railroad official. "The only way to get there is over the railroad right-of-way, four miles in, four miles out, through two tunnels. It's all private property, of course, and there's a sheriff's deputy watching it like a hawk."

Sheriff's officer Alfred Dart has pounced, hawk-like, on 24 people. Dart seized all the beer they had risked their lives to recover. Four were prosecuted for trespassing, the other released.

Despite Dart and diesels, nearly all the beer has disappeared.

But railroaders say the big joke of Jacumba is in the beer drinking.

One railroad official explained: "The beer was in refrigerated vans. Once it gets warm it tastes terrible, even if you re-refrigerate it. There wasn't a beer in that gorge worth walking across the street for."

Lou Cotty, county prosecutor, said the charge was filed Monday while Judge Young was on the bench.

The prosecutor said the action stems from an incident the night of July 4th. The charge is that Judge Young fired two shots at a car containing four Lancaster youths.

Cotty said Judge Young would disqualify himself, then appoint a judge in his place, probably from an adjoining county to preside in the case against him.

Young told investigators the youths threw high explosive firecrackers into his yard and one of the explosions knocked his wife from a chair. He said he was standing in his yard when he fired the shots.

The youths stated that the judge shot at them from in front of the Lancaster fire station, the prosecutor's office said.

Richard McCormack, 17, was driving the car. His passengers were Bill Kerby, 18; Rex Beeler, 21, and Richie Ayler, 16.

BRIDGE CANYON, Ariz. (AP)—Barry Goldwater's 312-mile boat trip down the Colorado River, retracing the route of an adventure undertaken in 1939, is nearing an end.

The rapids became so rough at one point, Goldwater reported, that a helicopter airlifted the boats over sharp rocks.

In the party with Goldwater, the 1964 Republican presidential nominee, are his sons, Barry Jr. and Mike, and a daughter, Joanne. The former U.S. senator's other daughter, Peggy, and her husband left when the party reached the Grand Canyon last week.

Legal Side Hits Cameras In Courtroom

By JOHN DALY

NEW YORK (AP) — It may be because summer is upon us but the thought strikes me that so much hot air has been pumped into the question of television in the courtroom, it's time to cool off and bring matters into focus.

Up to now, we have heard an increasingly strident dialogue between newsmen, demanding access for the cameras under the free press rights of the First Amendment of the Constitution, and the bench and bar in full battle cry, defending the fair trial provisions of the Fourth Amendment.

The newsmen proclaim the public's right to know.

The legal legions damn cameras of all kinds as compromising the dignity of the court, the alertness of witnesses, the integrity of testimony and, worse, say the lawyers, the cameras create confusion in the public about the courts and the law.

Usually, these exchanges are heated up after both news media and the bar have been involved in a notorious criminal case.

Since both sides are so concerned about the public, let us, by all means, focus on the good old public. We the people of the United States, as private individuals, have a very good reason to know our courts.

Each of us has a good chance of winding up in court one of these fine days. Last year, some five million of our citizens were arrested on charges ranging from suspicion to homicide. That comes to about five per cent of the adult population. Multiply that by 40 years of eligibility and it suggests the possibility that the average man and woman can, hopefully or otherwise, look forward to one or two arrests in a lifetime.

The average American is scared out of his or her wits on entering a courtroom. Whether as principal or witness or whatever. The surroundings are strange and the ritual and proceedings overpowering and confusing.

I submit, we, the public, should be as much at ease in our courtrooms as we are in our post offices. We can be, once we are familiar with court procedures and rules, what is understood is, usually, not feared.

The best way to understand the courts, it seems to me, is to

Seek Withdrawal Of Questionable Film

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Letters calling for the withdrawal of "four questionable and highly immoral movies" from the summer program schedules of a Georgia educational television station have been sent to state officials by the Georgia Association of Broadcasters.

GAB Director Jack Williams said Tuesday the letters were sent to Gov. Carl E. Sanders and James Dunlap, chairman of the University System Board of Regents. The station is WGTV at the University of Georgia.

The letters are signed by GAB President Ridley Bell of Columbus, GAB Vice President Virgil Hoff of Augusta, and Raymond Carow of Albany, past president of the GAB.

The letters did not mention the names of the movies, but it is understood one is "Room at the Top."

To Refile Election Case In Lower Court

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A suit to force Kansas City officials to hold an election on several charter amendments probably will be refiled in a lower state court.

The Missouri Supreme Court Tuesday refused, in effect, to take jurisdiction in the matter. The suit involves charter amendments that would shorten the terms of the mayor, city councilmen and municipal judges.

Charles C. Shafer Jr., one of two attorneys who filed the action in the state's high court, said he probably would refile in a lower court.

In a reply to Shafer's suit, the city contended that petitions for the charter election did not contain enough valid signatures.

invite educational television into the courtroom. Working with local bar associations and the courts, a daily hour- or two-hour program, possibly titled "In Court," could run the gamut of court procedures and all types of trials.

Television has actually been transmitted from the Washtenaw County Circuit Court in Ann Arbor, Mich., for some three years, with the approbation of the American Bar Association, no bright lights, no intrusion of dignity, no interference with testimony, no complaints.

The telecast is on closed circuit to students at the University of Michigan Law School.

Why should this education be restricted to a privileged few?

Charge Judge In Felonious Assault Case

LANCASTER, Mo. (AP) — Judge Cecil H. Young, magistrate of the Schuyler County Magistrate Court, has been charged in his own court with felonious assault.

Lou Cotty, county prosecutor, said the charge was filed Monday while Judge Young was on the bench.

The prosecutor said the action stems from an incident the night of July 4th. The charge is that Judge Young fired two shots at a car containing four Lancaster youths.

Cotty said Judge Young would disqualify himself, then appoint a judge in his place, probably from an adjoining county to preside in the case against him.

Young told investigators the youths threw high explosive firecrackers into his yard and one of the explosions knocked his wife from a chair. He said he was standing in his yard when he fired the shots.

The youths stated that the judge shot at them from in front of the Lancaster fire station, the prosecutor's office said.

Richard McCormack, 17, was driving the car. His passengers were Bill Kerby, 18; Rex Beeler, 21, and Richie Ayler, 16.

DEEP-SPACE DUST CATCHER—A micrometeoroid detection satellite that may be sent on a one-year voyage into space as far out as the asteroid belt—100 million miles from earth—is shown in drawing. Being developed for NASA by the Martin Company, the satellite would send back information on the hazard of meteoroids and micrometeoroids in the regions beyond the moon. Z-shaped sensor panels are designed to give maximum exposure to the particles no matter which direction the satellite is facing.

Wagon Train Trip Tiring To Youths

HILLSBORO, Kan. (AP)—It's an awful lot of fun, but tire-some, appears to be the consensus of the 29 youngsters from 6 to 16 years old journeying by miniature wagon train down the old Santa Fe Trail.

The 10 diminutive prairie schooners drawn by small horses and ponies left Kansas City last Wednesday, enroute to Santa Fe, N.M. Eleven adults are traveling with the caravan, now in its eighth day and 200 miles along the trail west.

"I'd do it again, any time," said Sue Gilsdorf of Shawnee, Kan., one of four girls, 14 to 16, who are the wagon drivers. "It's lots of fun, it's lots of work, but I've never done anything that I love so much."

Mitz (pronounced Mitzi) De Mott of Prairie Village, Kan., said: "I don't really think it's like the pioneers did, going west, but I do think it will strengthen our will power. You can't stop it you want to. You're just out in the middle of nowhere most of the time."

"I rode a mule for a day and a half," Jane McAnany of Shawnee recalled, "and I'm still sore. I'm driving a wagon now, and my grandparents brought me some cushions to sit on."

Barbara McTigue, also of Shawnee, said "It's an awful lot of fun. You are awful tired each day. I'd like to become an adult sponsor on a caravan some day."

Jane McAnany added: "I think this is an excellent idea, because we know just about what the settlers suffered in the covered wagons when they moved west. This wearing the long dresses like they did must have gotten terribly hot. We only wear them for a couple of hours each day, and they're pretty hot."

The wagon train camped on the high school field in Hillsboro after leaving Lincolnville, Kan., early Tuesday. It has been averaging about 30 miles a day. The caravan camps in McPherson, Kan., tonight.

There have been some ceremonies. At Lincolnville, Mrs. Joyce Carlson read a history she researched of Lincolnville and its connection with the Santa Fe Trail.

A Hillsboro family talked to several of the older girls and left muttering, "Terrific."

Two of the girls were watched by some of the townspeople as they washed their hair in buckets of water dipped from water brought for the horses and ponies.

"Why don't you use showers at the swimming pool?" they were asked.

"Feels better this way," they replied.

The youngsters in the wagon train are fed along the way by civic clubs and restaurants through efforts of the U.S. Highway 56 Association.

East German Hit Trying To Escape

BERLIN (AP)—An East German trying to escape to the West apparently was hit by gunfire from East German border guards Tuesday night, West Berlin customs officials reported.

They said that East German guards fired 10 times at the border of West Berlin's southern Marienfeld section and screams were heard about 300 yards inside Communist territory.

Surprised With Gift

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A 38-year-old steel worker who went to the bank for a $1,000 loan was amazed when the bank gave it to him as a gift.

Officials of the Marine Trust Co. of Western New York handed Henry A. Kawa of suburban Orchard Park ten $100 bills Tuesday and marked his loan paid in full.

A bank spokesman said that last month the bank noticed it had granted 650,000 loans and decided to make a gift of a loan sought by its 700,000th customer.

Kawa was No. 700,000.

To Launch Two Sentry Satellites

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A pair of Sentry satellites is to be launched here early Thursday to detect nuclear bomb explosions in space.

The Air Force announced today that the twin sentinels will be sent into high-flying orbits by an Atlas-Agena rocket. Riding along will be a third satellite, a 12-pounder designed to measure radiation in the Van Allen Belt.

The nuclear detection satellites will join four others launched in pairs in 1963 and 1964.

The earlier satellites have delicate sensors which peer more than 200 million miles into space to spot a clandestine nuclear detonation. The new pair also will carry optical instruments capable of detecting a nuclear blast anywhere in the atmosphere or on the earth's surface.

The optical instruments were designed to differentiate the initial blast of a bomb from lightning flashes, which are occurring at the rate of 60 to 100 a second in the atmosphere.

Two years ago, the United States and the Soviet Union were among more than 100 nations which signed the limited nuclear test-ban treaty.

Red China, which recently exploded her first nuclear devices above ground, did not sign.

The satellites were developed under a project named Vela — night watch — to help police the treaty. A nation could secretly fire a nuclear bomb by rocketing it deep into space. A second rocket would be needed to carry diagnostic gear.

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — An American soldier on guard duty mistook a South Korean army private for a Communist infiltrator before dawn today and killed him, the U.S. Army announced.

The two men were on guard duty together along the demilitarized zone about 20 miles northwest of Seoul. The Army said the Korean apparently strayed away from the guard post and was shot as he was making his way back.

The Army withheld the names of both soldiers.

LONDON (AP) — The bill to abolish hanging as the penalty for murder went to the House of Lords today after final approval in the House of Commons by a vote of 200-98.

MANILA (AP) — Typhoon Freda headed for the highly fortified Communist Chinese island of Hainan today, leaving an estimated 37 persons dead in the Philippines and extensive damage.

The storm was reported 260 miles south southeast of Hong Kong and moving west north-west about 14 miles per hour. The Hong Kong observatory said if it kept to its present course, it would pass 200 miles south of the British colony Thursday.

LONDON (AP) — Three young Czechs — two of them scientists — have defected and asked for asylum in Britain, the Home Office said today.

The government ministry said Robert Holub, 28, his wife Marie, 22, and Milan Bednarek, 28, quit a party of tourists last week and spent six days in a Salvation Army hostel before going to the police.

The Home Office said their request was being considered.

Mood Among Beasts Is Harmonious

By GEORGE W. CORNELL, AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The deer nibbled at the goat's ear. The kangaroo nuzzled noses with the donkey. The llama looked bored. Jewish and Christian clergymen recited psalms and prayed.

It was an odd assemblage, and also ecumenical, ecclesiastic and zoological.

It was held at the World's Fair Tuesday to show — as a possible lesson to man — how amiable animals could live together in a "peaceable kingdom."

"O Lord, open, we beseech Thee, our eyes to behold Thy gracious hand in all Thy works," prayed the Rev. Robert Seekins Jr., rector of Trinity Protestant Episcopal church in Troy, N.Y.

The assorted creatures — the dogs, a baby lamb, cats, a tiny pony, fish, a blinking scarlet macaw — along with the Scripture verses and blessings, made a curious pastoral scene in a furnished lounge.

"The theme expressed here is peace," said Cleveland Amory, chronicler of high society life and assembler and director of the animal kingdom exhibit at the fair.

"If animals of high individuality and which normally fight can live together happily, then the idea might spread to people, and maybe there would be hope for them, too," Amory said.

The mood among the beasts there was harmonious and tranquil, until the Shetland pony began kicking the wall behind the sofa and the bull calf tried to leap over the coffee table.

A pretty girl attendant subdued the Black Angus calf. A young man stilled the pony.

Father Ambrose Agius, a Washington, D.C., Roman Catholic and vice president of the National Catholic Society for Animal Welfare, prayed:

"O God, by whose providence these and all animals are lent to us for companionship and cooperation, grant us always gratefully to acknowledge in them Thy power and goodness, and to reproduce towards them Thy own fatherly care."

Rabbi David Goldberg, of the American Council of Judaism in New York, said a time will come, according to the prophecy of Isaiah, when "the wolf shall dwell with the lamb and the leopard with the kid; when the cow and the bear shall feed together and a little child shall

Thunderstorms Break Out In Midwest Section

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thunderstorms tapered off today after breaking out across wide areas in the nation's mid-section with heavy rain and strong winds.

The storm belt extended from areas in Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois, westward into Kansas, Texas and New Mexico. Tuesday night's violent weather followed a day of temperatures in the 80s and 90s across most the Midwest and southern Plains.

air and a cool Canadian air mass set off the storms. Heavy rain and strong winds pounded the Chicago area and many other parts of Illinois. Hail fell in many cities. Winds of 69 m.p.h. lashed the Quincy area in a thunderstorm which dumped more than two inches of rain in an hour.

Iman-Ogden Vows Pledged On June 19

Before an improvised altar, decorated with pink roses and white gladioli, at West Union Baptist Church, near Versailles, Miss Donna Iman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Iman, Versailles, became the bride of Mr. Tom Ogden, son of Mrs. Dorothy Ogden, Shoemakersville, Pa., at half past two o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 19.

The Rev. Kenneth Carpenter performed the double ring ceremony.

"Because" was sung by Miss June Sattler, accompanied by Miss Gladys Daniels at the piano.

The bride wore a two piece suit dress of white lace over taffeta. The top was styled with long sleeves. On her head, she wore a small white hat with bluish veil and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Marilyn Holloway, Kansas City, served as maid of honor. Her suit dress was of blue eyelet lace over blue taffeta, with a matching pillbox hat. Her corsage was of white carnations. Bridesmaid was Miss Donna Marriott.

Mr. Ernie Gadshalk, Easton, Pa., was best man. Mr. Bob Johnson was usher.

The mother of the bride wore a beige suit with matching accessories. A powder blue and white jersey dress, accessorized with white, was worn by the mother of the bridegroom. Their corsages were of pink roses.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the church. Pink roses and a miniature bride and bridegroom decorated the three tiered wedding cake, which was served with punch. Serving were Mrs. Wendell Burke, Mrs. Alta Naylor, Mr. Linda Ypya and Miss Byronite Lutman.

A graduate of Versailles High School, the bride has been employed at Chet & Bet's Drive-In Cafe. The bridegroom, a graduate of Perry High School, is a member of the United States Army. The bride will reside temporarily with her parents.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. Dorothy Ogden and Bill Wentzel, Shoemakersville, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. William Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stringer and Jim Kennard, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Frank, Fort Leonard Wood, and Frank Rains of Stover.

Mrs. James Caviness and daughter, Ruth, entertained June 16 at a shower honoring Miss Iman.

Assisting Miss Iman in opening gifts was Mrs. Don Weymuth.

Guests were: Gertrude Iman, Mrs. Walter Naylor, Mrs. Mildred Stafford, Mrs. Tom Daniels, Mrs. Don Weymuth and son, Mrs. Wendell Burke, Mrs. Mildred Iman, Mrs. John Davidson, Mrs. Larry Edzards and daughter, Mrs. Marvin Jones, Mrs. C. L. Iman, Miss Carolyn Iman, Mrs. Jess Caviness and Miss Ruth Caviness.

POSTAL PAIR—The Herbert Hoover commemorative stamp and the Coast Guard post card will soon be unveiled by the Post Office. The 5-cent Hoover stamp will be issued at West Branch, Iowa, where the 31st president was born in 1874. The Coast Guard post card will be issued at Newburyport, Mass., to mark the 175th anniversary of the nation's oldest continuous seagoing armed force.

See Possible Progress In Arms Talks

GENEVA (AP)—Despite Soviet agreement to return to the Geneva disarmament talks, conference officials say there is no immediate prospect for important progress before the U.N. General Assembly opens in September.

But Britain announced Tuesday that as soon as the 17-nation conference resumes, it plans to submit a draft treaty to check the spread of nuclear weapons. It said the draft had been prepared in consultation with its allies.

Soviet acceptance of a U.S. proposal to resume the talks by July 27 was announced by President Johnson in Washington Tuesday.

The conference recessed Sept. 17, 1964.

The Soviet bloc repeatedly had turned down American proposals to revive the talks, saying it preferred to carry on the discussions in the 114-member U.N. Disarmament Commission in New York. The commission voted overwhelmingly last month for a resumption of the Geneva talks, and Western officials here believe this played a big part in the Soviet change of heart.

The United States is reported willing for the first time to discuss the multilateral nuclear force proposed for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization at the conference.

The Soviets have warned repeatedly that creation of the force would raise "insurmountable obstacles" to any treaty to prevent the spread of nuclear arms.

Sheriff's Deputies Will Need Degree

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Future sheriff's deputies in Multnomah County will need a college degree.

The county Civil Service Commission voted Tuesday night to make the bachelor's degree a requirement for full time sheriff's deputies and staff.

Eleven Students Hospitalized After Explosion

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—Eleven students were hospitalized, two in critical condition, after a chemical explosion shattered splinters of glass through a science laboratory at Bakersfield College.

"There was a terrific noise and suddenly the room was full of fog and chemicals," said the chemistry teacher, Dr. Robert Brailsford. "I couldn't see anything for a couple of minutes."

Brailsford said the explosion which ripped through the summer school class of 25 students at the junior college Tuesday apparently was touched off unintentionally by a youth mixing incompatible chemicals not included in the class experiment.

All 24 students were taken to the hospital, but 13 were released after treatment for either cuts or chemical inhalation.

Brailsford said the youth, William J. Fox, 19, of Ridgecrest, realized what he had done and gasped "God forgive me" before he collapsed to the floor.

Spokesmen at Bakersfield Memorial Hospital said Fox was in critical condition with burns and internal cuts from flying glass fragments. He lost his left hand.

At Mercy Hospital, Joseph Hibbs of China Lake also was in critical condition.

Navy Task Force Cleans Cannes Sand

CANNES, France (AP)—The sands of Cannes were mainly without stain today after toiling sailors of the U.S. 6th Fleet removed most of the gummy black fuel oil that had defiled the sparkling beach.

The bikini set reclined in the sun once again and hotel owners breathed a sigh of relief only 48 hours after the U.S. aircraft carrier Shangri-la accidentally dumped 3,000 gallons of oil into the limpid blue waters of the Mediterranean.

A howl of protest had gone up

THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT—Sedalia, Mo., Wed., July 14, 1965 13

in this famed French Riviera Helicopters and small boats sun spot as wind and tide spread chemicals on the water carried the thick ooze to the beaches, turning the sand and the water slimy black. Owners of beach establishments began toting up damage claims to present to the 6th Fleet.

Bombarded with complaints, Cannes Mayor Bernard Cornut-Gentille sent a police launch to the carrier to protest.

Officers on the Shangri-la apologized, explaining that the oil had been dumped near shore by error.

Swinging into action, the Navy sent a task force of 100 sailors ashore with shovels and trucks to haul away the greasy mess.

The waters off Cannes were limpid blue again today and the sands were almost back to their original hue.

Heat, Moon, Moonlighting

There's only one way to heat the heat, according to the public relations man for a you-know-what company that manufactures a certain beverage he would like to have advertised in the news columns. The way is to select a shady spot as they do along the Mediterranean shores, add one soft, reclining chair and a table set with a single glass, a tall pitcher of that you-know-what liquid refreshment, and a bucket of ice. Quench your thirst, relax. It's crazy to be anything else but lazy.

Of course there are dozens of other ways to keep cool. One method we try in the evening is to keep the wife out of the kitchen, don shorts and a sport shirt, motor to a drive in, munch on crispy french fries and a hamburger with malt, then go on a leisurely ride out into the country, make a turn around through Smithton and have a good look at the full or lesser phases of the moon. Early to bed and you have neutralized the heat wave.

Watching the silvery orb on a clear night is stimulating. No telling what thoughts it may generate. One reminder was of an article on the subject of "moonlighting" prefaced by a sentence: "Who said Americans are lazy?"

Nearly four million Americans are holding down two jobs, according to a recent study by the U.S. Department of Labor. This was in connection with a moonlighting survey which revealed that many moonlighters work at a second job they themselves created, indicating they were imaginative and resourceful.

Furthermore, the moonlighting fraternity is given approval by the most important point of the study, in its conclusion, to the effect these double-duty workers, as a general rule, are not depriving the unemployed of work.

If all the moonlighters stopped moonlighting, it is believed that this wouldn't help the unemployed significantly. Few jobless people could or would take these second jobs.

Significantly the number of unemployed and the number of moonlighters are almost equal. Perhaps the man without a job should talk with, and listen to, people who have two jobs. Or if they couldn't care less, then watch the moonlighting or the moon and go on being lazy and cool, man, cool. It's crazy—but comforting.

"So Why Don't You Fellows Talk This Over?"

The Strain to Be Fair

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence: My 8-year-old boy says I'm unfair if I don't scold his little brother like I scold him when they do something wrong. They are not allowed to leave our front yard after 5 o'clock because of the heavy street traffic. Yesterday they did this and went over to another child's house. The older boy got wild because I didn't scold his 4-year-old brother, too. I tried to tell him that it's because he is older that I expect more sense from him but...

ANSWER: Why don't you ask him if he wants to be treated like a 4-year-old?

As he knows the advantages of being a little boy, you don't have to list them for him. But its disadvantages haven't occurred to him so you'll have to remind him of them, saying: "I'll be glad to treat you like Buddy if that's what you really want. It means, of course, you'll have to go to bed at 7:30 instead of at 9 o'clock. We'll have to take your bike away and give you a tricycle like Buddy's. I don't know how you can squeeze into 4-year-old clothes but you'll have to try. Had you thought about the afternoon rest hour you'll have to take? It's fine with me if you want to be treated like a 4-year-old boy but I want to be sure you know what you're getting into. . .

Had you not been rattled by the child's charges of unfairness, I'm sure that this sensible response to them would have occurred to you.

Our anxious, rattled response to a youngster's charge of unfairness should be of interest to us.

Like the notion that we are obligated to deliver absolute love to children, the notion that we are obliged to deliver absolute fairness to them causes us much trouble. Nobody on this earth has ever received perfect justice from anybody else. We just don't know enough about the things that go on in other people to judge them with flawless accuracy. The best judgment we can make is only an approximation of perfect justice. If we know this, we don't get rattled when kids accuse us of unfairness. As we've long since outgrown the grand ambition to be admired as a perfectly fair parent, the charge of unfairness goes in one ear and out the other, thus enabling us to use the gray matter which exists between our ears to face our 8-year-old with the absurdity of his wish to be a 4-year-old.

CHICAGO DAILY NEWS: What a Relief—There's grim word from the Air Force. A continued barrage of meteoroids, it announced, is grinding down the moon.

Just as we started to worry about this, though, we got to the next paragraph. At the present rate of shrinkage, "it would take 40,000 billion years for the moon to lose just one-tenth of its present mass."

Here, at least, is something we can put off worrying about until tomorrow.

Soviet Birth Rate

The birth rate in the Soviet Union is declining. One way to look at this fact is to commend that nation for not adding to the population explosion, which is threatening to cause serious food shortages for the world in another generation. But this is not the reason the Soviet Union is disturbed. The reason is the high proportion of working mothers there.

Heavy household burdens combined with the demands of a career, cause many professional women to have only one, or at most two children. In a study called "Family Versus Work," women in the Soviet Union make up 52 per cent of all professionals, including a majority of physicians and 31 per cent of engineers.

Women also work as street cleaners, subway conductors, field workers and other menial chores which are not particularly conducive to child bearing. There is also a scarcity of household aids such as washing machines, vacuum cleaners, hot and cold running water, and refrigeration. Therefore the Russian mother must go to the market more often and work harder at her home chores. Since having a job is recommended

Supreme Court Seat Seen for Marshall

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thursday, July 14, 1965. A 57-year-old Negro and one of the tremendous moving forces in American history, may be on his way to a seat on the Supreme Court.

Many people now probably can't remember ever hearing his name for he did not seek publicity and his most sensational victory was in the 1950s.

But it was Marshall, as a Negro lawyer for Negroes, who argued this century's most historic civil rights cases before the court and won almost all.

Thus he helped lay the ground for the enormous strides American Negroes have made toward equal treatment in the past 11 years, something hard to imagine in 1954.

That year the court ripped down the basic barrier to equal rights by declaring the very principle of segregation unconstitutional and banning it in public schools.

Marshall had a lot of help before he argued that case, from lawyers, sociologists, anthropologists, psychologists.

From 1938 Marshall was chief counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Slowly through the years Marshall and the NAACP got the court to knock out various forms of segregation.

The great victory didn't come until the 1954 decision. He did important civil rights work afterwards. But in 1961 President John F. Kennedy named him a judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals.

Then the mantle of obscurity fell over him, as usual in such a job, since federal judges, except for the Supreme Court justices, are seldom heard of outside their own limited jurisdiction.

Tuesday President Johnson announced he was appointing Marshall solicitor general of the United States, making him No. 3 man in the Justice Department behind the attorney general and the deputy attorney general.

As solicitor general he will be a vivid symbol of Negro progress for now it will be his job to argue the government's cases before the Supreme Court.

When he appeared there in the past it was as a Negro arguing for justice for Negroes. He will go there on many kinds of cases in the future but his voice will be the voice of the U.S. government.

As chief counsel for the NAACP near the end of his career there Marshall got $15,000 a year, a lot less than he might have earned in private practice.

His job on the Court of Appeals was for life at $33,000 a year. The solicitor general's pay will be $28,500, a $4,500 cut, and it's not for life. Since that's a great sacrifice, it raises a question.

Will Johnson after a while, when there's a vacancy, appoint him to the Supreme Court? He wouldn't have to do it in such a roundabout way. Five judges of the U.S. Court of Appeals have been appointed directly to the Supreme Court by presidents since 1943.

On the other hand, in the past 27 years only one man, Stanley F. Reed, was appointed to the Supreme Court from the solicitor general's job.

Senate approval is necessary for a man appointed to the appellate court, the Supreme Court, or to the solicitor general's job. And Southerners in the Senate have slowed down approval for Negroes when Senate approval is needed.

For instance, the Senate took almost a year to okay Marshall's appointment to the appellate court. It may dawdle about doing the same on the new appointment.

Southerners might go all-out to keep a Negro off the Supreme Court, if there were a vacancy now. But as time passes, this kind of opposition can be expected to dwindle.

When there is a Supreme Court opening, Marshall, as a solicitor general, will have become a far more familiar national figure than he could ever have been if he had remained an appellate judge.

The Jacobys discuss a hand for a second time.

Oswald: "You are just starting out as a columnist. Remember this hand? In the actual play South won the club lead in his hand, drew trumps with three leads to stop in dummy, led a spade and rose with the king. West took his ace right away whereupon South squeezed him in the black suits and made his slam."

Jim: "I think we pointed out that West could have broken up the squeeze by ducking spades twice. I believe I suggested that East should have doubled the three diamond bid whereupon West would have opened a diamond and spoiled that black suit squeeze."

Oswald: "That's right where the perils of a columnist come in. A brilliant reader has pointed out that the hand can be made with a diamond opening."

Jim: "I know, but the play is one that would only be made by a man who had seen all the cards. It involves declarer running off all five trumps before going after the spades. West would have to discard a diamond on the third trump lead and his last diamond on the fourth trump lead. Now the fifth trump lead would force a discard of a black card from West. A club discard would make all the clubs good. A spade discard would allow declarer to make three spade tricks."

Oswald: "South would go down several tricks if East held the ace of spades but we should have covered this in the article anyway."

U.S. Government Pollutes Waterways

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — While Congress has been drafting a law to prevent paper mills, chemical plants and municipalities from dumping waste and human sewage into the nation's waterways, the federal government itself turns out to be a consistent polluter of water.

Rep. Bob Jones, D-Ala., long a crusader for clean waterways has just developed some paradoxical cases of federal pollution. One is by the public health service, which is supposed to enforce the anti-pollution law.

However, its hospital at Staten Island, N. Y., was found to be dumping 7,500 gallons of untreated sewage a day into upper New York Bay. The hospital also discharges 177,000 gallons of sewage into New York City's overworked sanitation system.

Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall is a leading crusader against water pollution and tries to practice what he preaches. Yet the Interior Department's Indian school at Wrangell, Alaska, pollutes a creek, emptying into Zimovia Strait, with 25,000 gallons of sewage per day. Udall is now trying to correct this.

The Navy's air material center in Philadelphia has been dumping 83,400 gallons of sewage and 329,800 gallons of untreated industrial wastes a day into the Delaware River. Meanwhile, the Navy's shipyard at Portsmouth, Va., discharges 800,000 gallons of industrial wastes, 2,140 gallons of raw sewage and substantial quantities of additional sewage from docked vessels each day into the Elizabeth River.

Here are a few other federal installations that are practicing pollution while the government is spending millions to fight similar contamination by private, industrial sources:

Fort McHenry in Baltimore, shrine of our national anthem, discharges a daily 30,000 gallons of effluent from two septic tanks into the Patapsco River, already a badly-polluted stream. An Army Engineers installation and a Navy Reserve Training Center, adjacent to Fort McHenry, also dump inadequately treated wastes into the river.

The Justice Department's federal penitentiary at Terre Haute, Indiana, treats industrial wastes of over 200,000 gallons a day in an inferior plant, with a capacity of 100,000 gallons. Part of this sewage is discharged into the Wabash River.

The federal correctional institute, at Seagoville, Texas, also under the Justice Department, discharges effluent of a "dark appearance and carrying a considerable amount of suspended solids" into a creek used by adjoining property owners for livestock watering.

The U. S. Naval hospital, Charleston, South Carolina, discharges 250,000 gallons of sewage per day into Charleston Harbor, while the Naval air station at Dallas, Texas, dumps inadequately filtered oil wastes, from an aircraft maintenance area, into Mountain Creek Lake. Webb Air Force Base, Howard County, Texas, dumps wastes into drainage ditches. This sewage is flushed into surface watercourses during periods of heavy usage or heavy rain.

Wind River Indian Agency at Fort Washakie, Wyoming, dumps 9,000 gallons of inadequately treated effluent a day into the Little Wind River. Tests show high bacterial counts endangering the health of down stream water users. A community of 450 Indians takes its drinking water about six miles downstream.

The Veterans Hospital, Alexandria, La., discharges 111,000 gallons of untreated sewage a day into the Red River. Meanwhile, a much bigger, federal polluter, the TVA's Wilson Dam and chemical plant at Wilson Dam, Ala., dumps over 15 million gallons of industrial wastes, some untreated, into the Tennessee River and Pond Creek.

Meanwhile, Congress is pushing to pass a law to tighten up on water pollution by both private industry and the government.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Alcohol, Drugs Trigger For Porphyria Attacks

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Association

Q — What is porphyria and what is the treatment?

A — Porphyria is a disease of unknown cause. Heredity appears to play a role. Alcohol and barbiturates may trigger an attack in persons who are susceptible to this disease. The liver of these persons produces an excess of porphyrin, a purple pigment necessary in the formation of hemoglobin.

The disease is manifested by repeated attacks of severe abdominal cramps, constipation and weakness. The victims are overly sensitive to sunlight which may cause severe blistering. The urine, which appears normal at first may turn a burgundy red on exposure to sunlight.

While there is no simple cure, victims are benefited by avoiding alcohol and exposure to the sun. If an operation must be performed, it is important to tell both the surgeon and the anesthetist about the condition so they will not give any barbiturates.

Several other drugs have recently been added to the list to be avoided. These include diethylstilbestrol (a female hormone), griseofulvin (a drug to control ringworm), meprobamate and chlorthalidopexide (tranquilizers) and several anticonvulsants.

If alcohol has precipitated an attack, bloodletting gives prompt relief. In others severe attacks have been controlled by the use of the artificial kidney.

Q — Last summer my 18-year-old daughter got Sherman's disease. How long will it last? Is there any cure?

A — You are probably referring to Scheurmann's disease which affects the growth centers (epiphyses) of the vertebrae. It results in a forward curvature of the spine for which a body cast or back brace is usually worn. In younger children the disease may last several years but it disappears when bony growth ceases—usually in the 17th or 18th year. If your daughter wears a brace until the disease has run its course, she should not have any disability or unwanted after effects of the disease.

Q — What is an adenocarcinoma of the prostate and what is the best treatment?

A — This is a form of cancer. The only treatment is prompt and complete removal followed by X-ray treatment and hormones.

Missouri

QUESTION: When a person composes and writes material entirely from his own efforts is he automatically protected from the use of this material by others?

FACTS: Upon his retirement from the banquet circuit, Mr. Witty compiled a joke book entitled "After Dinner Jokes I Have Known." At his request, the local printer made 200 copies of the book, which were quickly purchased at the local book store by the author's admirers. No notice of copyright appeared on any of the copies.

The next year, Mr. Witty was surprised to discover that a nationally distributed book "After Dinner Jokes" was actually a direct copy of his own work. He wrote the publisher, demanding a fair royalty. His request was denied. He sued for royalties.

Would Mr. Witty be entitled to damages from the publisher?

ANSWER: Mr. Witty would not be entitled to damages: He neglected to place a notice of copyright on the earlier published copies. Although an author has an inherent right to his literary productions, this right can be lost easily by general publication, unless he seeks the protection of the copyright law.

The first and most important step in securing copyright protection is to place the proper notice in the proper place on every copy. Formal registration is essential, but must follow publication. The copyright notice must include the word "copyright," the abbreviation "Copr." or the symbol ©, plus the name of the owner and year of publication. Unless this notice appears on each copy, an author, such as Mr. Witty, loses his right to keep others from copying. The notice serves to warn the public of the author's assertion of his rights. Since 1955 the use of the symbol "©" has been more widespread in this country, in order to confer international protection of an author's works. By treaty, other countries recognize our copyrighted works and afford them full protection if the copyright notice includes the symbol "©," the owner's name and year of publication. Since both domestic and international literary protection depend upon it, the short copyright notice should never be ignored.

Predict Approval

Some Southern Opposition To Marshall Appointment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Party leaders predicted today the Senate will approve two of President Johnson's top nominees — Judge Thurgood Marshall to be solicitor general and Leonard H. Marks to direct the U.S. Information Agency.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said in separate interviews they see no reason both the appointees should not be confirmed with reasonable speed.

However, Johnson's selection of Marshall, a Negro circuit judge, to succeed Archibald Cox as solicitor general, aroused some Southern opposition.

Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla., said he believed the choice of the former general counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People as the government's chief trial lawyer was unwise.

"To make him the special pleader for the whole of the government certainly opens the matter up to controversy," Holland said.

Johnson announced the nominations Tuesday at a White House news conference. Major topics included:

VIET NAM — The President said "increased aggression from the north may require an increased American response on the ground. It is quite possible that new and serious decisions will be necessary in the near future." In response to a question on whether military reserves might be called up and draft calls increased, he said, "The government is always considering every possibility and every eventuality."

DISARMAMENT — He said the Soviet Union has agreed to the resumption of disarmament negotiations in Geneva and that the United States has suggested the 17-nation talks resume July 27.

POLL TAXES — Johnson said he has asked Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach to work with House and Senate conferees in an effort to deal with state poll taxes in the voting rights bill. The measure as passed by the House would ban the use of state poll taxes in state or local elections. The Senate's version of the bill would not ban them, but would call for a quick court test on them. The President said he hopes the conferees can "agree on satisfactory language that will give us the most effective repeal provision that is obtainable and that we think can be supported in the courts." He said he is against the poll tax and would like to see it repealed.

CIVIL RIGHTS — Asked about comments by some Republican leaders who "have suggested that over the years you have changed your position on civil rights," Johnson said, "I am going to try to provide all of the leadership that I can, notwithstanding the fact that someone may point to a mistake or 100 mistakes that I made in my past."

Following announcement of Marshall's nomination, Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., applauded his record on the Circuit Court of Appeals to which he was appointed by President John F. Kennedy on Sept. 23, 1961. Marshall served under a recess appointment and was not confirmed until Sept. 11, 1962. At that time 16 Southern Democrats voted against him.

In announcing the appointment of Marshall, Johnson noted that the nominee will be taking a reduction in salary. He draws $33,000 yearly as a circuit judge, will get $28,000 as solicitor general.

The choice of Marks to succeed Carl T. Rowan, Negro director of the USIA, surprised many in Congress.

Marks was employed in various positions in the Federal Communications Commission, including assistant to the general counsel, and was appointed by Kennedy as one of the original incorporators of the Communications Satellite Corp.

The nominee served as attorney for the Johnson radio-television interests in Texas when Mrs. Johnson placed her holdings in trust.

Dirksen made no comment on Marks' qualifications for his new job. Mansfield said he does not know the nominee well but assumed that Johnson had found him qualified for the post. Holland said, "I never heard of him."

Advise Short Honeymoon For Couples

CHICAGO (AP) — The honeymoon is much sweeter when short, says a wedding consultant, and short honeymoons are better for a marriage too.

"The most surprising thing is that many times a couple gets bored with each other on a long honeymoon," consultant Louis Seno said in an interview.

"The shorter the honeymoon, the better. Two weeks is the most I'd advise," he said.

Seno, a wedding consultant 20 years, said the anxiety and excitement leading to the wedding puts a couple on their best behavior.

"Then suddenly they're married. They think they know each other, but then they start spending 24 hours a day together and discover they don't.

"In a strange resort, surrounded by strangers, the discovery that Prince Charming snores or has a few minor faults can be devastating."

"The newly married couple obligates each other to constant entertainment. They see little or nothing connected with their home life."

Seno, 41 and father of four, said a short honeymoon gives the couple a chance to be alone, and that the return home means the real beginning of happiness.

"At home, even though it's a brand new apartment, a bride can take things in stride," Seno said. "The man gets up and goes to work, and the wife has a chance to relax, do her daily chores and dismiss the little frailties of her husband."

Seno said the most susceptible persons to a soured honeymoon are women who have lived with their parents and have made few trips.

"The more the homebody, the more they look forward to a trip — and stretch it too long," he said. "Many women end up getting homesick. As a result impatience and misunderstanding develop."

Frustrated Cronin Sees AL Lose Again

Win Only Two of 11 Star Games

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — The most frustrated man in baseball today must be Joe Cronin. If he isn't, he should be.

Since he took office as president in 1959, his American League has won only two of 11 All-Star Games while tying one. In the same span, the league has lost four of six World Series.

Genial Joe squirmed in the heat Tuesday while the National League once again turned back his American All-Stars 6-5, despite blowing a 5-0 lead.

It marked the fifth straight defeat for the Americans in All-Star and World Series competition.

The National League, which once wanted to call the whole thing off when it found itself trailing 12 games to 4, has taken a lead for the first time since the competition began in 1933.

The victory, their seventh in the last eight decisions, has given the Nationals an over-all 18-17 lead.

The Nationals simply had too many guns Tuesday. They out-hit the Americans 11 to 8 and out-homered them three to two. Then, when they needed stout pitching after the Americans had made up a five-run deficit, they called on World Series hero Bob Gibson. The St. Louis right-hander stopped the Americans in their tracks.

With the Nationals ahead again 6-5, Gibson came in to pitch the last two innings. After giving up a leadoff double to Tony Oliva in the ninth, raising the hopes of the 46,706 American League partisans, Gibson quickly dashed them by setting down the next three hitters, two on strikeouts.

The crusher was his whiffing of Harmon Killebrew, the Minnesota strong boy whose fifth-inning two-run homer had tied the score 5-5.

As he has done in so many previous All-Star Games, Willie Mays took the spotlight.

The San Francisco wonder boy, unimpaired of a painful bruise on his right hip — a souvenir of a home plate collision at Philadelphia Saturday night — opened the game with a home run. It was hit off starter Milt Pappas, Baltimore Oriole right-hander.

Willie didn't get any more hits in his leadoff role, but he walked twice and one of those walks developed into the winning run.

That came about in the seventh inning when he coaxed a pass off Cleveland left-hander Sam McDowell, raced to third on Hank Aaron's single, remained there while Roberto Clemente grounded into a force play and ambled home on Ron Santo's crazily bouncing single over second base.

For two innings, it looked like a breeze for the National League. Taking their cue from Mays, Milwaukee's Joe Torre and Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell followed with homers, each with a man aboard, and before the Americans had their first hit, the Nationals had a 5-0 lead.

In the meantime, the Americans, led by Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox, could do little with Juan Marichal, the National League starter. The 26-year-old San Francisco right-hander faced only nine men in his three innings. He gave up a single to Vic Davalillo of Cleveland, but the center fielder was erased on a double play.

It was not until the fourth inning, with Jim Maloney of the Cincinnati Reds on the mound, that the Americans finally came to life.

They scored their first run on a walk and singles by Dick McAuliffe of Detroit and Rocky Colavito of Cleveland. Then came the big fifth when the Americans tied the score with four runs.

McAuliffe accounted for the first two with a 400-foot homer over the center field fence. It scored Minnesota's Jimmie Hall, who had walked. Mays ran into the fence in a vain attempt to keep the ball inside the park and jarred his injured right hip.

Brooks Robinson of Baltimore followed McAuliffe's homer with a single and trotted home ahead of Killebrew's 410-foot drive into the pavilion in left center. Mays didn't even bother to turn around to see where that ball was going.

The National used six pitchers to five for the losers. Sandy Koufax, who pitched the sixth inning, was credited with the victory.

Mays Was Hurt, But Saw Action

MINNEAPOLIS, SAINT PAUL (AP) — Willie Mays came to the All-Star Game with a painful bruise and without his batting helmet. But when he left he had accomplished the usual—hit a homer, scored the winning run, set two records and managed to squeeze in his fence-crashing act.

Sharing the spotlight with San Francisco teammate Juan Marichal in the voting for the most valuable player, Mays played his usual key role as the National League edged the Americans 6-5 Tuesday and took the lead in the series.

Realty Team Downs VFW 4-3 Here

Broadway Realty ousted VFW 4-3 and Red Wing won over S&M by default in Tuesday night's action in the Sedalia Connie Mack League. Red Wing was given the game since S&M failed to field enough men to play.

Broadway collected three hits and committed two errors on its way to victory Tuesday. VFW was three for three, but committed four errors. Paul Coffelt took the win, and Ronnie Williams the loss.

Both teams scored twice in the first inning. In the third stanza, VFW took the lead when Ronnie Williams doubled to left and advanced to third on an error. He then scored on a wild pitch.

Broadway Realty bounced back in the fifth and pushed across two runs. Mike Maple reached first on a fielder's choice, advanced to third on a throwing error and scored on a wild pitch.

Butch Rozier then walked and stole second and third. Steve Morris walked and Steve Lewis singled to left scoring Rozier and the winning run.

Action resumes tonight, weather permitting, with VFW going against Red Wing and Pepsi playing Broadway Realty.

third All-Star homer and 21st hit, breaking a tie with Stan Musial for the all-time high in the hit category.

In the seventh inning, Mays led off with a walk and then scored the run that broke a 5-5 tie after singles by Hank Aaron and Ron Santo. The two runs brought Mays' total to 18 in All-Star play, extending his own record.

In the eighth inning, with two on and one out, Dick McAuliffe tagged a long liner toward center. Mays took one step, slipped, then started racing back and made a lunging one-hand catch.

"I don't mind telling you I was scared to death," Mays said in the dressing room "I didn't misjudge it, but I slipped as I started to go back."

What about in the fifth inning when he chased McAuliffe's homer into the center field fence, leaping against it in a futile attempt to make the catch?

"I didn't think it was going over," Mays explained. "I know when I jump, I can get up over the fence, so I thought I had a chance."

Mays hit the fence with such force that he bruised the right side he injured in a home plate collision at Philadelphia Saturday night.

Mays might not have known what he was doing, but Marichal did, edging Willie in the most valuable player balloting 46-45.

The high-kicking right hander stopped the American League on one hit through the first three innings, easily the most effective performance of the 11 pitchers used in the game.

But he did experience some difficulty with the height of the mound, slipping to the ground on his first pitch before realizing what the trouble was.

Mauch, Lopez Would Like Rematch Of All-Star Game

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Gene Mauch and Al Lopez, who managed this year's All-Star Game by default, would like to face each other again next year — but this time on their own.

Mauch won in his rookie try while Lopez suffered his fifth loss without a victory Tuesday as the National League edged the American League 6-5 and took a one-game lead in the 36-game All-Star series.

"I'll be more than happy to keep trying to beat them," said Lopez, "if we (the Chicago White Sox) can win a pennant and put me in the game again."

Asked how it felt to help put the National League ahead by one game, Mauch of the Philadelphia Phillies said:

"Good, but not as good as it would feel to manage the team that puts them two games ahead."

Both Mauch and Lopez were substitutes this year. Their teams each missed winning pennants by one game in 1964, but both became the All-Star managers when Johnny Kean of St. Louis and Yogi Berra of the New York Yankees changed leagues.

Following their first encounter, Mauch said his team "would have thought of another way to win it if they hadn't won it the way they did."

Lopez called it a "heck of a good game, a good show which either side might have won."

The home run hitting of Willie

Mays, Joe Torre and Willie Stargell plus the pitching of Juan Marichal and Bob Gibson dominated postgame discussions in the NL dressing room.

But an infield boulder which took two crazy hops after leaving the bat of Ron Santo of the Chicago Cubs in the seventh inning had the American League shaking their heads.

The blow went for an infield

Jamieson Is Man To Beat In Tourney

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Jim Jamieson, who had to drop out of school when he couldn't match par in the classroom, is headed back for Oklahoma State University with medal honors.

The stocky 22-year-old from Moline, Ill., became the man to beat in the 62nd Trans-Mississippi Amateur Golf Tournament when he putted his way to a 68 Tuesday and posted a par-matching 140 for the two qualifying rounds.

Two strokes behind him at 142 were Jim Rheim of Chula Vista, Calif., the first round leader with a 69 Monday; Jim Hardy of Hutchinson, Kan., Rod Horn of Kansas City, and 15-year-old Tom Watson, who has the advantage of being at home on the Kansas City Country Club's 6,635-yard layout.

The low 64 started four days of match-play today. It will culminate in a 36-hole championship match Sunday.

It took a 155 to qualify, with 10 shooters who posted 156s going two extra holes for the last four spots. Marty Fleckman, NCAA champion from Houston, qualified automatically.

Jamieson took medal honors with four birdies on putts of 2 1/2 to 35 feet. Hardy, also an Oklahoma state golfer, matched Jamieson's 68 Tuesday.

Young Watson was two under par and had the best chance to overtake Jamieson until his tee shot on the 16th hit a tree and was unplayable.

Area Boys Place In High School Rodeo

Three Sedalians placed in the Missouri State Championship High School Rodeo held at Tarkio, Mo., July 9-11.

Jay Blackwell took second in bare back bronc riding; Bill Hotsenpiller, second in bulldogging; and Jerry Markley and Dan Nix tied for third in cutting horse competition.

Nix was elected vice-president of the Missouri State Championship High School Rodeo Assn., during the weekend of events. Competitors who placed in the Rodeo qualified to go to the national high school rodeo, Aug. 11-13, at Ogallala, Neb.

McCall Will Name U. S. Cup Team

CHICAGO (AP) — Nobody knows better than George MacCall just how good Mexico's Davis Cup squad is.

Two of Mexico's top players Rafael Osuna and Antonio Palafox, have played scores of matches at MacCall's Los Angeles Tennis Club.

MacCall's observations have led him to conclude "that the best possible American team must be ready when the two countries square off in Dallas beginning July 31."

MacCall, who arrived on the scene at the National Clay Court Tennis Championships Tuesday, announced that he will name a six-man squad "no later than Friday."

Picking the team, however, is going to be quite a problem, according to MacCall. He said: "There are a few things that I have to mull over in my mind before reaching any decisions. And before the week is over, I should have the answers."

The answers will be provided by the 16 players left in the men's division of the tournament. All eight seeded players have survived the first two rounds.

It's a safe bet, MacCall says, "that at least one player not even in contention for the Cup could be picked."

One such player, Stan Smith of Pasadena, Calif., a sophomore at UCLA, is going to get the once over by MacCall. Smith plays seventh-seeded Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, Wednesday, and if Smith wins, he'll have to be considered a darkhorse candidate.

The only thing definite in MacCall's mind is that Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., the nation's top ranked player, and Ham Richardson of Dallas, have the inside track to being named to the doubles team.

Ramon Sota Leads Field Half Through French Open Tourney

PARIS (AP) — Ramon Sota of Spain led the field by one stroke today at the halfway point of the French Open Golf Championship.

Sota's double eagle two on the 556-yard 16th hole Tuesday helped him shoot an 11-under-par 62 and gave him 131 for 36 holes.

In second place as play began today was Cobie Legrange of South Africa who had 65-67-132 for his first two rounds. British Open champion Peter Thomson of Australia and John Hayes of South Africa were tied for third with 136s.

Two Horses Killed

SALEM, N.H. (AP) — Shutter Spy and Cutting Humor were destroyed at Rockingham Park race track after they broke down in the sixth race Tuesday. Jockeys Mario Benito and Jack Kurtz were thrown but escaped serious injury.

Hills No Bother For Poploski

PITTSBURGH (AP) — If Stan Poploski, 43-year-old Pittsburgh real estate salesman, goes all the way in the National Public Links Golf Tournament he could become the first man to ride to a top amateur golf title on a pair of roller skates.

After establishing himself as the man to beat by firing a 73-71-144 to pace a trimmed field of 64 players into the match play that starts today, Poploski shrugged off the belief that an older man would fold after several days of trudging the North Park golf course's steep, roller coaster hills.

"Heck no. I roller skate twice a week. Me and my wife both do. It's great for the legs," said Poploski, who is making his 10th try for a National Publink.

Poploski, who matched North Park's par 36-35-71 with one bogey and one birdie on the card, said the prospect of 36-hole quarter-final and final rounds didn't bother him at all.

Despite Poploski's stamina, the betting was still heavily on the "youngsters" who were breathing down his neck during Tuesday's second 18-hole qualifying round.

Among a group two shots back at 146 were defending champ Billy McDonald, a 21-year-old music student from Topeka, Kan.; Ron Greenbach, 23-year-old tavern owner from San Francisco; Sonny Ewing, 28-year-old physical education teacher from Dallas, Tex.; Edward Heyl, 24-year-old government mathematician from Falls Church, Va., and 30-year-old Wendell Kop, a bouncy little engineer from Honolulu.

It took a score of 154 to make the cutoff for match play.

Daily Record

● Sheriff Report

Several items were taken from a self-propelled combine owned by John Smasal, Route 1, south of Sedalia, over the weekend.

Sheriff Emmett Fairfax was informed the radiator cap, gasoline cap, sediment bowl, battery, tool box and supplies were removed while the combine was parked at the McGee farm near the Smasal place.

● Police Reports

William Christian, 805 South Merriam, reported the theft or loss of his Alabama license plate 13-714 from his car while it was parked at 818 South Limit. The license was lost within the last 30 days, according to police records.

James Carlson, 1000 West Fourth, reported the theft of two slide cameras from his auto between 8 and 10 p.m. Monday night. One was valued at $25 and the other at $40.

● Police Court

The case of C. F. Schauwecker, 2336 West Second Street Terrace, charged with careless and imprudent driving in connection with an accident, was withdrawn by City Attorney John McCloskey.

James R. Bishop, Independence, charged with driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident, pleaded innocent, but after a hearing was found guilty and fined $75.

Edgar A. Moehring, 408 West 16th, charged with careless and imprudent driving in connection with an accident, forfeited a $25 bond.

Elvin R. Bishop, Route 5, charged with careless and imprudent driving, pleaded guilty and was fined $10.

The case of Emmett Odill, Marshall, charged with disturbing the peace on complaint of Pauline Odill, was dismissed on request of the complaining witness.

Andrew Kasper, Pittsburgh, Pa., charged with vagrancy, pleaded guilty and was given a 10-day suspended jail sentence.

● Accidents

Allen D. Hundley, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hundley, Route 2, was painfully injured about 3 p.m. Tuesday while playing near a battery box to a railroad signal on the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad right-of-way. He received his injuries when some article was thrown against what was believed a bottle containing acid and it broke, pieces of glass striking him in the face and eyes, and acid splashing on his forehead and in one eye.

The child, according to Sheriff Emmett Fairfax, was playing with three playmates, one also eight and two six years old. He said it was reported to him the battery box was unlocked and open at the time, but when he went to investigate after receiving the report several hours later he found the battery box had been locked up but an opening on a signal post was unlocked and open.

The child was treated by Dr. Ira M. White, who Sheriff Fairfax reported, said pieces of glass had struck the eye, and one eye had an acid burn and burns on the forehead.

The incident occurred at signal post 2242, northeast of the railroad crossing at Griessen Road.

Sheriff Fairfax said he visited the scene about 9 p.m. after receiving the report of the accident. He said at that time the box had been locked up, and had apparently been worked upon.

A blow-out to the right front tire of a tractor-trailer unit was listed as the cause of an accident damaging the unit and four other vehicles it struck when its driver lost control. The mishap occurred in the 2100 block of East Broadway at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The driver of the tractor-trailer was Norman Smith, 32, Clinton. Smith complained of pain in his arm near the elbow, but did not require medical attention.

The vehicles hit by the truck, all parked, were a 1959 Ford station wagon owned by J. M. Brand, Route 5, which had its entire left side damaged; a 1948 GMC pickup, owned by Paul Paxton, 2117 East Broadway, which was damaged along the left side and both the front and rear; a 1948 Chevrolet, owned by Larry D. Paxton, 20, 2117 East Broadway, damaged along the rear and both front fenders; and another 1959 Ford station wagon, owned by J. M. Brand, damaged in the rear.

The truck, damaged on the right front fender, skidded 153 feet after jackknifing as a result of the blowout.

No injuries were suffered in a two-car accident at Broadway and Barrett about 10:05 o'clock Tuesday night. Damage resulted to both vehicles.

According to the police report Mrs. Nathalia Poynter, 45, of 809 West Seventh, was driving a 1962 Dodge sedan and was headed east on Broadway in the south lane when the car was struck from the rear by a 1955 Chevrolet four-door sedan driven by C. L. Comfort, Jr., 17, 818 West Seventh Street.

The police reported Mrs. Poynter had been driving north on Barrett, stopped at the stop sign, let three cars pass and then pulled on and turned east on the south side or south lane, according to her statement.

Two Students Attend Youth Meet At MU

Two Smith-Cotton High School students, who will be juniors this fall, attended a Youth Leadership Seminar at the University of Missouri in Columbia, July 5-9.

They were Barbara Hiatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Hiatt, 1609 East Ninth; and Rick Belt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Belt, 1425 South Snede.

The seminar was sponsored by the University of Missouri Extension Division in cooperation with the State Department of Education, the Missouri Council of Children and Youth and the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. They were among 200 students and leaders that took part in the seminar, the first of its kind. Emphasis was an group participation in exploring and exchanging leadership ideas.

During the morning programs the young people heard a speaker give his views on a topic followed by group discussion. In the afternoon, the young people had an opportunity to challenge the speaker and other panelists to clarify the discussion subject.

Keynote speakers were Professor Daniel Schler, director, Peace Corps training program, University of Missouri; the Rev. William Shoop, minister, First Christian Church, St. Joseph; and state senator Pat Patterson, Caruthersville.

They discussed various parts of the question of the individual and his responsibility to himself, to his society and to his school and community.

In addition to work sessions, seminar participants had time for dancing, swimming and other recreation. One evening they presented a variety show with talent from the group. Another evening they attended the university production of the play "See How They Run."

Denies Tie With Acts Of Violence

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Union leaders have denied any connection with acts of violence Tuesday against the strikebound Laclede Gas Co. at St. Louis.

A Laclede car was set afire and water was discovered in a gas main. It was the second day of a strike against Laclede by about 1,825 members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union, AFL-CIO.

John L. Coleman, international representative of the union, said water in gas mains accidentally occurs frequently. He said his union does not advocate violence and said union leaders knew of no action against the company by the union.

Laclede spokesmen said the incidents were the result of "deliberate actions by unknown persons."

"The water obviously was put into the mains artificially," said the gas company spokesmen.

There were no injuries in the car burning. Police said an auto occupied by two men pulled up beside the parked Laclede car, tossed something into it and then threw matches onto the car seat. The company vehicle burst into flames and the men jumped in their car and sped away.

Laclede is operating with supervisory employees.

Union members struck Monday after month-long negotiations broke down because of a dispute over wages, pensions and vacations.

The union has asked for a four per cent raise the first year and five per cent the second. Laclede has offered 1.7 per cent the first and four per cent the second.

Average pay now for the union members is $3.22 an hour.

To Salvage Sections Of Radar Plane

FALMOUTH, Mass., (AP)—The search continued today for seven crewmen missing since an Air Force radar picket plane crashed at sea Sunday night.

Air Force officials announced that attempts would be made to salvage sections of the four-engine plane, and said the operations might help turn up the bodies of some of the missing men.

Col. Raymond K. Gallagher, wing commander at Otis Air Force Base, said Tuesday night the Constellation is believed to be resting at a depth of 50 to 100 feet, about 85 to 100 miles northeast of Nantucket Island.

Officials said they have a good position on the point of the crash from one of the survivors, the navigator, Lt. Bruce Witcher.

Witcher, 27, of Redding, Calif., said he spent the last minutes before the crash fixing the position of the ditching.

Of the 19 men on board, three survived. Nine bodies were picked up by rescue vessels. Seven men were listed as missing.

Witcher and a second survivor, Airman 2C Lavid Surles, 24, of Raleigh, N.C., told newsmen Tuesday they never gave up hope as they floated more than 10 hours in the cold Atlantic.

The third survivor, Airman 1C John N. Puopolo, 25, of Boston, was still under treatment from swallowing large amounts of sea water.

FAMILY MOVIE—Britt Ekland, beautiful Swedish actress-wife of Peter Sellers, appears opposite her husband for the first time in "After the Fox," now being filmed on Italy's Ischia Island. Britt forsakes her blond serenity for the role of a tempestuous brunette.

People In The News

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Heiress Gamble Benedict and her new husband, state police investigator Thomas F. Gallagher Jr., honeymooned in Bermuda instead of Ireland, Gallagher says.

"I hope there were a lot of press agents waiting at the Dublin airport," Gallagher said. When they were married July 1 in Clinton, N.Y., the couple said they were going to Ireland.

NEW YORK (AP)—Rajmohan Gandhi, 29, grandson of Mahatma Gandhi, says he has invited 100 young Americans to tour Asia to display "a more exciting revolution" to their counterparts in the nonaligned world.

Gandhi, editor of an English-language news magazine in Bombay, said Tuesday in an interview he hopes to sponsor such a tour for the members of a musical review created by students attending a demonstration on Mackinac Island, Mich.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Anna Kashfi cried Tuesday on the witness stand as she told how actor Marlon Brando, her ex-husband, took custody of their child, Christian Devi, last Dec. 7.

Miss Kashfi is charged with assault. A policeman who accompanied Brando said Miss Kashfi slapped the movie star during a wild argument over possession of the boy, now 7.

Brando testified that several medical authorities told him Miss Kashfi was psychoneurotic.

Caboose Playhouse

LIBERTYTOWN, Md. (AP)—Twenty-five miles from the nearest railroad tracks, a Baltimore-Ohio Railroad caboose stands in a backyard of this tiny Western Maryland community.

The 50-year-old car serves as a playhouse for Marine Sgt. William M. Bill's children.

Last year, Bill found a caboose in the B&O yards at Brunswick, Md., ready for the scrap heap. He persuaded railroad officials to sell it to him for $350 then he spent another $480 having it moved the 25 miles to his backyard.

Work On Medicare Bill Compromise

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate and House conferees meet today to start working out a compromise on the medicare bill, and congressional leaders predict fast agreement.

The Senate added 513 amendments to the House version of the bill, which provides health care for the elderly and increases Social Security benefits.

Act of Whistling Has Complications

ATLANTA, Ga. — (AP) — The simple act of whistling, says Dr. James Jordan of Emory Uni-

Passes Bill For Cigarette Warning

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has completed passage of a bill requiring health warnings on every pack of cigarettes. The Federal Trade Commission, however, is barred from ordering the tobacco industry to include such a warning with cigarette ads.

versity, has many psychological implications.

"Whistling 'Dixie' is an organized, orderly activity, consciously directed," he says. "And when someone whistles 'I Feel Like a Motherless Child' or 'Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen,' it's a pretty good sign that he's down and out."

France Shows Part Of Atomic Air Force

PARIS (AP)—France showed off part of her budding atomic air force today as a highlight of the annual Bastille Day Parade.

Thousands jammed the Champs Elysees to see a parade featuring armored strike power and parading units of all France's armed forces.

President Charles de Gaulle led off the parade on a trip from the Arc de Triomphe to his reviewing stand.

The parade was one of the biggest in years.

Officials said that 9,000 troops of all kinds took part, including varied armored units, Alpine troops, navy and air force units.

Conference Techniques Improved

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson seems to be trying to improve not only his own public image but that of the press as well.

Bill D. Moyers, the new White House press secretary, tried out some new rules Tuesday in an effort to reduce the confusion caused in the minds of television viewers when reporters pop up all over the room at news conferences shouting "Mr. President."

Moyers told the newsmen gathered in the East Room to keep their seats and hold up a hand, like they were in school. The President would recognize them, he said, and then they could get up, go to a nearby microphone and ask their question.

To facilitate matters, Moyers had about 30 microphones scattered around the room. The men with the long-boom hearing devices, which can pick up a voice many yards away, still kept their equipment trained on the reporters.

While he was making a series of announcements at the beginning of the conference, the President was all but hidden by a television camera almost looking down his throat. The camera was linked to a prompting device.

When the announcements were over, the camera hastily was hauled out of range, the prompter disconnected and everybody was on his own.

Of course, not everything worked out as expected. A few times two reporters thought they had the presidential nod and started talking at the same time. One woman reporter, sitting in the first row, didn't bother to get up to ask the President two questions.

Demo Study Unit Proves Its Worth

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic Study Group, the liberal Democrats' special organization in the House, may be in the odd position of needing just a bit of party adversity to keep it honed up to what it considers full effectiveness.

Grown from a little band of self-named marauders in 1957, the group—DSG for short—now enrolls a majority of the Democrats in the House. It won its spurs inching out victories over the old coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats. Now it sees President Johnson's legislative proposals sailing serenely through a House where the administration party, since last November's election, has a better than 2-1 edge.

The chairman of the study group, Rep. Frank Thompson Jr. of New Jersey, says it is as much needed as ever, and keeps proving its worth convincingly, if not spectacularly.

"If we weren't providing the hard core of votes, those margins wouldn't be so impressive," Thompson said in an interview, "and look at the vote on the Housing and Urban Development Department—we went all out on that and we needed to."

The proposal for the new Cabinet department won 217-184 in the House—much closer than some other major administration measures.

The last Congress had twice denied President John F. Kennedy's request for similar legislation.

For Southerners, it had a racial issue, because Kennedy announced in advance he intended to name a Negro, Robert C. Weaver, to head it. Weaver, then and now head of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, is still considered in the running to become the first Negro in the Cabinet.

When Thompson spoke of going all out for a bill, he meant among other things using to the full DSG's chain-telephone system. Its operators contend that a message, usually "Get to the floor, we need your vote," can be relayed to all 165 DSG members in three minutes.

The liberal wing of the Democratic party used to lose votes because the more determined Southerners stayed in town and in the Capitol to make their bloc strength count.

A group of Northern and Western Democrats, worried about the success of the coalition, formed the forerunner of DSG in 1957. Lee Metcalf of Montana, who subsequently moved to the Senate, was one of the main organizers, and the band was for a time known as "Metcalf's Marauders."

Two years later the organization set itself up formally and adopted the study group name, partly because it conducts legislative studies, but largely because it wanted a low-key designation to discourage any belief it was out to challenge the regular party leadership.

Finally Have a Boy

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — After 26 years it's finally a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Douglas D. Roberts, Jacksonville.

Mrs. Roberts, 42, gave birth to her first boy last week. The couple has 10 daughters aged 3 to 24 and two granddaughters.

Army Patrols Guayaquil After Riots

QUITO, Ecuador, (AP) — Tanks and army trucks patrolled Guayaquil, Ecuador's largest city, Tuesday night after more rioting against the ruling military junta. A curfew was imposed.

A 17-year-old girl was reported killed Tuesday in another of the antigovernment demonstrations that have been going on intermittently since Friday in Quito and Guayaquil.

One person was reported killed in Quito Monday night and a number were reported wounded in the capital and in Guayaquil. There was no report of trouble in Quito Tuesday.

University students in Guayaquil stoned police who fired in the air and set off tear gas. Students tossed bottles of water into the air in an effort to extinguish the tear gas.

Student, labor and political organizations are trying to force the military junta to hold national elections. The four-man junta took over in July 1963, after throwing out President Carlos Arosemena because of his drinking.

The Defense Ministry and the Military High Command in a communique Tuesday night said the armed forces "will continue to be loyal to the historic responsibility the country has bestowed on them."

The communique said the armed forces "are solidly unified" and "are determined to maintain order and security in spite of the anarchical outbreaks in Quito and Guayaquil."

Amid the unrest, the wife of junta President Ramon Castro Jijon left Guayaquil by plane Tuesday night for the United States. The reason for her trip was not known.

Morse Has Troubles With Guards

By DORIS KLEIN

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Hey," yelled the guard at the Paramount studio gate. "Where do you think you're going?"

"You," called the guard, "the one in the red shirt."

Robert Morse strolled back a few feet, a resigned look in his eyes.

"It happens every time," he said with a shrug. "I keep telling them I'm a star, but they don't remember me the next time I walk through the gate."

"Okay, Buddy," said the guard to Bobby. "Who are you?"

"I'm Bobby Morse, one of the stars of a picture we're making here, 'Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mama's Hung You in the Closet and I'm Feeling So Bad.'"

The guard's face took on a bewildered glaze and he waved Bobby through.

"If he doesn't remember me, the name of the picture gets to him," explained Bobby.

The trouble is that Bobby, with his pale face and Napoleon haircut, doesn't look like a star. Yet for two years, the boy from Newton, Mass., packed them in on Broadway as the brash young lead of the musical hit, "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying."

Moviegoers will begin getting accustomed to his face with "The Loved One," based on Evelyn Waugh's satire on undertakers, and "Oh, Dad, etc."

The real Bobby Morse is more comic than comic actor. He doesn't need a script to be funny. His conversation and mimicry are often funnier than some of the scripts he encounters.

An actor since junior high school plays, Bobby financed serious training in New York as a Schrafft's cookie salesman and a Fuller brush man, and under the GI Bill.

After a small role in the film, "The Proud and the Profane," he did a turn in radio, then landed a feature role in the Broadway comedy, "The

Stover Lions Install New Officer Panel

Installation of officers for the 1965-66 year for the Stover Lions Club was conducted at a dinner meeting held at Flat Creek Inn, on U. S. Highway 65, South of Sedalia, Monday night. The installation was conducted by International Counsellor E. B. Smith, a member of the Sedalia Club.

Jewell Stevinson, an International Counsellor, and a former president of the Stover Club, acted as master-of-ceremonies.

Officers who were installed were Larry Bauer, president; Melvin Dale, first vice-president; Sid Merriott, second vice-president; Calvin Viebrock, third vice-president.

Don Case, secretary-treasurer, Otto J. Holsten, Tail Twister; Lion Tamer, J. O. Scrivner; and director for three-year term, Harold Case.

Smith gave a talk on both "recognition of International Counsellors" and on the "Missouri Eye Tissue Program" a project of the Missouri Lions.

He told the Lions and their guests of the importance of the Eye Tissue program and explained the donor cards which indicate the carrier of such card has donated his eyes to the bank following his or her death.

Prior to installing the officers, Smith inducted into the Stover Lions Club a new member, Lawrence "Red" Monsees.

Immediate Past President Kenneth Roland, reviewed the club projects for the past year, covering Boys and Girls Scouting, Eye Tissue program support, and their latest project Community Betterment. He also commented he was proud of the club for the many projects it has undertaken and the support he had personally received from the membership during his term of office.

Following his message he then presented the gavel to the incoming president, Larry Bauer.

During the meeting Smith presented the perfect attendance pins for the years of 1963-64 to 14 members and recognized 18 members receiving the 1964-65 awards.

Guests were Mrs. Sylvia Eddy, Tallahassee, Florida, Mrs. Donley Payne, Gallitan, Mo., and Mrs. E. B. Smith.

More than 75 persons attended the meeting. The Stover Club is in District 26-B, Multiple District of Missouri, Lions International.

Matchmaker." He repeated the role in films eight years ago.

His Broadway career continued upward with the comedy, "Say Darling" and a lead in the musical, "Take Me Along."

Then came "How to Succeed" and stardom.

Writer's Viewpoint

Chinese Way of Life Better Than What He Knew Before

EDITOR'S NOTE — Charles Lynch, a Canadian reporter, has just completed a two-month assignment in China in behalf of the Southern Newspapers of Canada. He wrote this analysis after his return home.

By CHARLES LYNCH

OTTAWA (AP) — Next to being a Frenchman, the best much in evidence. The Chinese began to quote some of their price lists in francs, and to give the French the edge in competitive bids.

In dealing with France, the Chinese lose no opportunity to take a whack at the United States — and they follow the same approach in their dealings with Canada, which lacks diplomatic relations with Peking and is perhaps the closest ally of the United States.

The Chinese voice their admiration for Canada at every turn. Yet Canada is guilty of many of the sins laid at Washington's door by Peking, and I pointed this out in conversations with officials.

Peking has been highly critical of United Nations' peacekeeping operations, for example, regarding them as a plot to further U.S. interests. Canada has been one of the chief exponents of U.N. peacekeeping.

Peking has bitter memories of the Korean War. Here, again, Canada was directly involved, at the side of the United States. In Viet Nam, it was Canada's voice, as a member of the truce commission, that pointed to North Viet Nam as the aggressor.

It could follow that Peking would detest Canada but everywhere I went I heard expressions of friendship for Canada's government and people.

I tried occasionally to use this mood of hospitality to explain the United States to the Chinese — to point out that there were many good things in America and her people, and that the picture was not so black as the Chinese imagine it to be. This kind of bridge building, I soon found, was not wanted.

The usual Chinese reaction was to say that they understood why a Canadian had to talk this way, because we were victims of American economic aggression and did not dare, as yet, to confront our tormentors. But they added, hopefully, the day of our liberation would come, and the Chinese people would do everything in their power to support their Canadian brothers against the American tyrants.

The overwhelming impression one brings away from China are not so much of the system as of the people, without whose support the system could not survive.

Their friendliness toward the Western visitor is something that I didn't expect. It meets one on every hand — on the streets of the cities, in the schools and universities, in the factories and on the communes.

Some of my questions could easily have been construed as being hostile, and many times I braced myself for an angry reply. It never came — the toughest questions were met with smiles, and there was always an attempt to make an honest answer. Usually, we agreed to differ on the meaning of honesty.

The people I saw seemed happy and well-fed. Yet the work loads they carry would be intolerable in most other countries.

Yet it does seem to have produced a way of life for the Chinese worker and peasant that is better in the material sense than anything he knew before.

Annual Picnic For TPA Set For July 28

Plans for the annual picnic for members of Travelers Protective Association, Sedalia Post

Effort Was Good But Results Negative

HAMDEN, Conn. (AP) — A party of state and local police and the resident park ranger climbed down a rock face at Sleeping Giant State Park to investigate reports of a body.

They found a stuffed dummy, made of wood and excelsior. State police said Francis Peters, 17, Meriden reported seeing something on the ledge this week.

"F", were made at a meeting of the board of directors this week. The picnic will be held on Wednesday, July 28, beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Catholic Community Center, south of Sedalia.

Harry Walch, post president, announced that food arrangements have been made for an attendance of 600 members and their wives. The Sedalia post has nearly 800 members, however, some members do not reside in the Sedalia area. All food and refreshments will be furnished by the post.

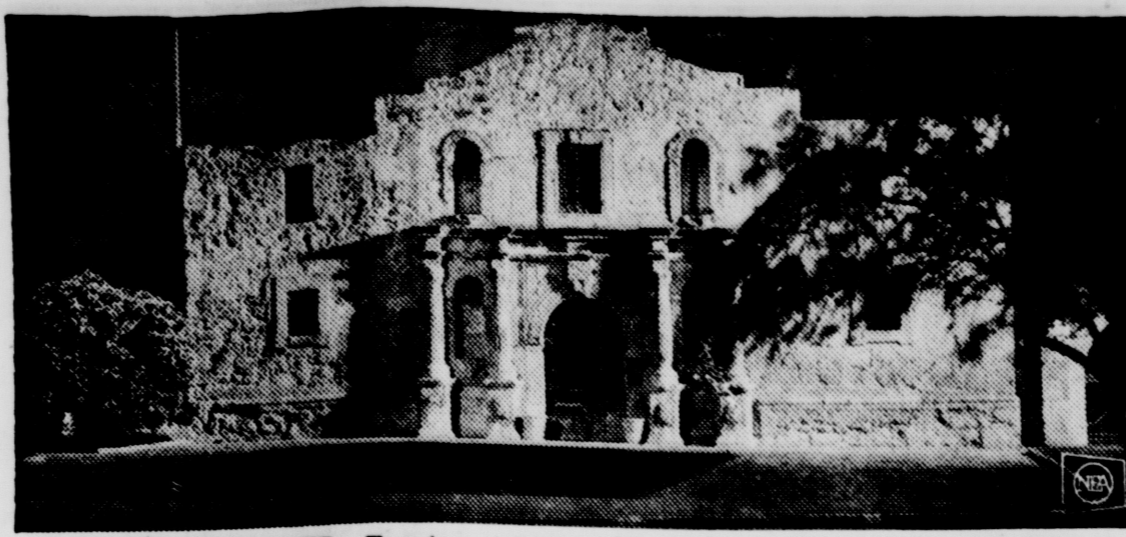

A program of entertainment is being planned by William Hopkins with many prizes in game contests.

Invitations will be mailed to all members on July 19th, with a request for reservations to be made with Bernard Stanfield, post secretary, no later than July 26. Members may bring prospective members as guests.

CD Training Class

A Civil Defense police training class will be held tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the Pettis County courthouse, it was announced today.

Lt. Morten Strones of the Whiteman AFB Air Police will be the instructor on the subject of collecting and preserving evidence.

A BRIGHT REMINDER—Evening visitors to the Alamo in San Antonio will find the famed "Shrine of Texas Liberty" lighted brightly by a new system donated by General Electric and installed by the city in co-operation with the Daughters of the Republic of Texas. Lighting is on from dusk to 11 p.m. It serves as a bright reminder that much of the freedom we enjoy today was earned at this spot.

People In The News

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Gary Crosby, eldest of singer Bing Crosby's sons, has been sued for separate maintenance by his wife, Barbara, a former Las Vegas, Nev., showgirl. Mrs. Crosby, 32, said in her Superior Court petition Monday that she separated from the 32-year-old singer last Friday.

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Carol Burnett broke her ankle last Saturday while playing softball with a group of children at Lido Beach, Long Island. She was treated at Long Beach Memorial Hospital, and released. Miss Burnett recently starred in the Broadway musical, "Fade Out, Fade In," which is now closed.

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—Speaking on a nationwide television and radio broadcast Monday night, Crown Princess Beatrix and her German fiancé, Claus Von Amsberg, thanked the Dutch people "for your understanding and congratulations on our engagement."

"The heartwarming letters, full of sincerity, understanding and sympathy, the fine drawings, poems, postcards and flowers enlarged and deepened our happiness," said the princess.

Tow Killer Whale Into Aquarium

PORT HARDY, B.C. (AP) — Namu the whale was off on another leg of his unwilling 400-mile swim to Seattle today.

Held in a cage of oil drums, nets, pipes and chains, the 22-foot killer whale is being towed from Namu, B.C., where it was trapped, to a waterfront aquarium in Seattle.

Four-ton Namu, the only one of his kind in captivity, is held in a pen 40 by 60 feet, towed by husky deep-water tugs and shepherded by Ted Griffin, owner of the Seattle sea-life showplace, on a little harbor tug.

Griffin bought Namu from two Canadian fishermen for $8,000. They caught the leviathan in their nets off the British Columbia coast several days ago.

Moving Namu south is a costly job. Griffin pays $100 for the 200 pounds of salmon the whale eats daily, and the voyage will last a week if all goes well, 10 to 12 days if not. Or it would fail if Namu breaks loose.

The cage was damaged by waves Sunday while being towed across Queen Charlotte Sound from the fishing village of Namu. Some of the steel framework buckled, and welds snapped.

At one point in Queen Charlotte Strait, as the sea-going procession neared Port Hardy, the 72-foot Canadian purse seiner doing the towing could only hold its own against the tidal current. The powerful vessel was held to a maximum speed of about three knots so Namu could swim along easily in the cage.

At Port Hardy the voyage south was about a fourth over. Between this town, on the northeast tip of the big Vancouver Island, and the city of Vancouver are more waters of the inland passage where the tides flow swiftly.

Seymour Narrows, with its high-speed currents which set up tremendous whirlpools, might be the area where Namu breaks free. But Griffin is confident the expedition will reach Seattle safely.

Some of the men cruising along say they are growing fond of their ferocious charge. They say Namu seems playful and fairly content. That may be only that the whale is well fed. Most fishermen and divers don't like the killer, the first group because he likes salmon, the second group because he has the reputation of being likely to attack anything.

The Encyclopedia Britannica in the latest edition says that the killer whale is dangerous to anything large or small that shows up in the water around him. The stomach of one showed the remains of 14 porpoises and 14 seals.

They travel in groups called pods, ranging up to 30 in number, and they hunt like wolf packs. They are believed to be highly intelligent, perhaps the most intelligent of all mammals but man.

Dangerous or not, Namu has well-wishers. Jack Hazzard, operator of a detective agency in Seattle tried to work up a protest move against keeping the whale captive. He called a rally of "conservationists" on the Seattle waterfront Monday night but canceled it "because of the antagonism it generated."

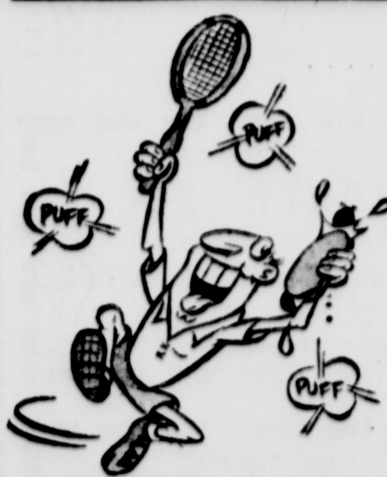

However, eight persons showed up. Mostly they said they just wanted to hear what the liberation forces had to say.

But one on Namu's side was Rory Sharon, 16, who said: "I came because I don't like to see any animal in captivity."

Bobcat Strikes Car

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — W. G. Gerrard and his family were driving along south of Miami at night recently when something dashed out of the shadows and crashed into the car. Back along the road, Gerrard found a 30-pound female bobcat with a broken neck. "A beautiful animal," he said. "All of five feet long."
